

DISASTROUS FIRE AT KANSAS CITY SWEEPS WHOLESALE DISTRICT

Plants of Ten Large Manufacturing Firms Totally Destroyed—Five Firemen Were Injured By Falling Walls—Origin of the Flames Believed Incendiary.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 4.—Fire tonight destroyed three city blocks of buildings in wholesale district known as the "west bottoms" before firemen gained control. The loss tonight was not known and fire and police officials and owners of buildings in the district were unable to make even rough estimates. Twenty-six buildings were either destroyed or badly damaged and many others suffered maller losses. Five firemen were injured when a wall fell, but no deaths have been reported.

The origin of the fire and the place it started are not known definitely, but it is believed to have originated in a warehouse leased by the Abernathy Furniture company at Santa Fe and St. Louis avenues. There were reports that the origin was incendiary and that the fire started in four different places within the burned area, but neither police or fire department officials could verify these rumors.

The fire started at Santa Fe and St. Louis avenues and spread one block west to Mulberry and south three blocks. Those who would hazard an estimate of the loss considered that while many of the burned buildings were old the contents were valuable. Some persons thought that the minimum loss would be from $2,500,000 to $3,000,000 and range possibly as high as $5,000,000. There were some who believed that the loss would amount to $6,000,000 or $7,000,000, but others declared such estimates "wild guess work."

The firms suffering total loss of their buildings are: Main-Wright Grocery company. Brite-Mawrin Grocery company. Paysler Iron company. Illinois Glass company (Kansas City branch). C. A. Murdock Manufacturing company; spices, coffee, etc. Great Western Manufacturing; makers of flour mill machinery. Thompson-Munroe-Robinson Chemical company. Lowe Brothers Paint company (Kansas City branch). Hamm Brewing company (Kansas City branch). American Steel & Wire company (local branch).

CREATE TWO MORE SECRETARIES OF WAR

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Congress today took final action on the bill creating two additional secretaries of war and the appointments probably will be announced in a few days. It is understood the men to be selected are Edward R. Stettinius, surveyor of army purchases, and Frederick Keppel, dean of Columbia University and now acting as confidential assistant to Secretary Baker.

With the appointment of the new secretaries, re-organization of the war department worked out by Secretary Baker and approved by the president will be put into full effect. Mr. Stettinius is understood to be in charge of industrial and commercial work and Dean Keppel in charge of the non-military life of the army.

DANIELS WILL INSPECT FORD PLANT MONDAY
WASHINGTON, April 4.—With the first of the Eagle-Boats, the new type super-submarine chasers for the navy, scheduled for launching in June, Henry Ford, the builder, has assured Secretary Daniels it would be possible to turn the craft out at the rate of three a day. Next Monday Mr. Daniels will inspect the Ford plant, near Detroit, where construction is in progress. A pattern boat virtually has been completed there and will be ready for a shore trial of the engines within ten days.

Under present plans Mr. Ford contemplates launching a boat a day after the building process is in full swing. The materials for the vessels have been provided and officials hope that it will be only a short time before the regular and officials hope it will be ready.

PAYS TRIBUTE TO AMERICAN TROOPS
NEW YORK, April 4.—Lord Aberdeen, formerly governor general of Canada and Lord Lieutenant of Ireland in a speech here today declared peace can be achieved only by a victory for the allies. The American troops are men to be proud of in the opinion of Lord Aberdeen who added:

"They show by their features and bearing a determination to win with duty in its every phase and portends well for the glory of their country and for the success of its cause."

HOG ISLAND ONLY SHIP PLANT SHORT

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Replying today to charges made before a senate committee yesterday that ship yards are short of steel, the war industries board in a statement today declared enough steel had been shipped to the emergency fleet corporation in the last three months to build ships at the rate of 550,000 tons a month or more than 6,000,000 tons a year.

It was conceded however that there might be shortages at certain yards and there was no denial that the Hog Island plant might be short. The board said the fleet corporation had been assured that all needs will be met if detailed information of the requirements of each plant were furnished.

CABLEGRAMS EXPRESS GRATITUDE OF ALLIES
WASHINGTON, April 4.—Cablegrams expressing thanks of Minister Victor Boret, Lord Rhonda and Minister Silvio Crisp of the French, British and Italian governments on willingness of the American people to reduce their wheat consumption in order that the allies and the soldiers may be fed, were received by the food administration today from the food ministers of the allied countries. The messages were in response to one sent from here last Friday announcing the action of 500 leading hotel men in pledging their establishments to cut wheat off their menus until the next harvest.

CANADIAN RED CROSS GIVEN HALF MILLION
WASHINGTON, April 4.—The American Red Cross today authorized the gift of half a million dollars to the Canadian Red Cross for war relief work.

The gift was made without restriction, but the American Red Cross expressed the hope that it would be possible to use the fund for the relief of Canadian soldiers at the front. The letter accompanying the contribution expressed the feeling of sympathy and admiration of the American people for the part taken by the Canadian Red Cross and the Canadian people in the war.

GERMANS MAY NOW BE READY FOR GREATEST EFFORT

Only First Phase of Gigantic Offensive Has Passed

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Renewal of German assaults against British and French lines in Picardy today indicated to military observers here that the Germans having gathered strength in the lull of the last few days, might now be ready for their greatest effort. Some officers think the allied commanders realize only the first phase of the gigantic battle has passed and that this probably accounts for the fact no extensive counter movement has been undertaken. The battle of Verdun continued for months before the Germans admitted that their objective was unattainable. Preparations for the present drive were so much greater and the objective sought so much more important that officers here are confident the German general staff knew it was entering on a long, bitter struggle when the assault was planned.

Under the new publicity policy, the war department had nothing to add to reports from abroad on the situation at the front and casual lists from France again were withheld. Major General March, acting chief of staff said he had cabled Secretary Baker for specific instructions in this regard.

PRO-GERMAN FARMERS ARE HOARDING WHEAT

State Food Administration Starts Preparations to Seize Wheat Now Held on Illinois Farms.

Chicago, April 4.—Preparations were started tonight by the Illinois state food administration to seize immediately wheat being held by farmers presumably for higher prices following the receipt of orders from Federal Food Administrator Hoover who charged that "there are some known pro-German farmers who are hoarding wheat."

The federal administrator directed that an example be made of the hoarders and that they be compelled to bear all expenses contingent on the seizure. Under the procedure county administrators will serve written orders on the hoarders to bring their wheat to the nearest elevator within a certain time. On failure to do so the wheat will be requisitioned on a price basis less the cost of seizure.

State Food Administrator Harry A. Wheeler tonight issued formal regulations governing all eating places, directing that no wheat products be served unless specially ordered and not more than two ounces be given a patron at one meal. Not more than one six pounds wheat flour of ninety meals served on Mondays and Wednesdays and every evening meal (5 p. m. to midnight) must be wheatless.

WILL BE INTERNED FOR WAR'S DURATION
NEW YORK, April 4.—Twenty one enemy aliens arrested in New York, Hoboken, Trenton, Newark and Boston will leave here tomorrow for Fort Oglethorpe, Ga. where they will be interned for the duration of the war. One of the prisoners is Mr. Karl Oscar Berlin, who was sent here by the German government in 1914 to deliver lectures and who was arrested last week at Lexington, Mass. Another is Maurice von Seebeck of Hoboken, who served for seven years in the United States regular army and who is said to have been an interpreter at General Pershing's headquarters in France. Dr. Isaac Strauss, this city charged with financing German propaganda in this country also is a member of the party.

PROTESTS AGAINST OBSEVATORY TRANSFER
WASHINGTON, April 4.—Secretary Daniels today sent a letter to Chairman Padgett of the house naval committee protesting against a house bill which would transfer the naval observatory to the Smithsonian Institute.

"Any interference in the work of the observatory at this time when all are engaged in war work," wrote the secretary, "interrupts the supply of nautical instruments to the active fleet, which may cause disaster."

OFFICIAL WAR STATEMENTS

ON THE ITALIAN FRONT

ROME, April 4.—The official statement issued by the war office tonight reads:

"Our patrols have been fairly busy along the whole front and desultory actions by the opposing artilleries also have been reported. At Malaga, Cyiumella, Ponale and on Monte Spinocina we drove back hostile patrols.

"To the south of St. Donna di Pieve there were frequently trench mortar engagements and advanced posts exchanged violent rifle fire across the Old Piave.

"Our aviators set fire to an enemy captive balloon in the vicinity of Val Dobbiadene and during the night they bombarded railways in the Lagarina Valley."

FROM FIELD MARSHAL HAIG
LONDON, April 4.—Field Marshal Haig's report tonight from British headquarters in France says:

"After heavy artillery preparation the enemy launched a strong attack this morning on the whole front between the Somme and Aves rivers. On the right and center of the British lines the attacking German infantry were repulsed, but on the left the weight of the assault succeeded in pressing back our troops for a short distance in the neighborhood of Hamel on the south bank of the Somme. The fighting is continuing in this area.

Early in the afternoon the enemy also attacked our line west of Albert and was completely repulsed.

"During the last few days there has been heavy fighting south of the River Luce. A Canadian brigade greatly distinguished itself in many successful actions, both mounted and dismounted."

ATTACKS BROKEN WITH LOSSES
BERLIN, April 4.—via London.—Four times yesterday the entente forces vainly endeavored to recapture the heights wrested from them southwest of Moreuil, says the official statement issued today by the German war office. The attacks, it is added, broke down with heavy losses.

The text reads: "Western front: Fighting activity revived south of the Somme. By means of surprise and after strong artillery preparation the enemy during the early morning and afternoon four times vainly endeavored to recapture heights wrested from him west of Moreuil. This attack broke down with heavy losses.

"Before Verdun and at Parroy wood there was at times a more lively firing engagement.

"Eastern theatre: In agreement with the Finnish government German troops have landed on the Finnish mainland. In the other theaters there is nothing new."

LAUNCH HEAVY ATTACKS
LONDON, April 4.—South of the river Somme the Germans launched heavy attacks early this morning on the British and French forces, says a statement issued this evening by the British war office. On the British front the enemy made progress in the direction of Hamel and the Bois de Vaire.

On the French front, immediately on the right of the British, the Germans, according to the statement, gained ground in the angle between the rivers Luce and Aves.

The text of the statement reads:

"North of the Somme there is no change. "South of the Somme the enemy launched heavy attacks early this morning on the British and French forces and on the British front made progress in the direction of Hamel and Vaire wood. On the remainder of the British front all attacks were beaten back with considerable loss. The fighting still continues.

"On the French front immediately on our right the enemy gained ground in the region of the rivers Luce and Aves."

NEW BUILDING YARD SOLELY FOR CONCRETE SHIPS

WASHINGTON, April 4.—A new ship building yard solely for the construction of concrete ships will be established soon by the shipping board. It will be located in some southern city where frost will not handicap the work, probably in Wilmington, N. C., or New Orleans with the chances favoring the former.

The new yard will have three ways, each of which will be utilized immediately in the building of a 3,500 ton concrete vessel as plans for that size of ship have been prepared. Upon completion of these vessels the plant will construct only 7,500 ton ships, which are now being designed.

The government yard will make five yards turning out concrete ships, the others being private plants at Jacksonville Fla., Brunswick, Ga., Redwood City and San Francisco, Calif.

CONFESSES KILLING NIGHT WATCHMAN

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Will Clements, a negro janitor employed at the offices of the committee on public information, confessed tonight he shot James King, a watchman, at the committee's headquarters, who was found dead at his post early this morning. Clements told the police he and King had an argument when he reported for work and that he shot in self defense after the watchman had drawn a pistol. King's cartridges failed to explode.

TWO POUND MINIMUM IS NOW PRESCRIBED

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Regulations requiring licensed dealers to sell wheat flour in not less than 12 pound sacks were rescinded today by the food administration and a new two pound minimum was prescribed. The purpose of the change is to make it easier for the house wife to buy equal quantities of wheat flour and substitutes.

D. & R. G. TRAIN WRECK INJURES THIRTY PERSONS

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., April 4.—About thirty persons were injured, none seriously when the Denver & Rio Grande passenger train No. 4, northbound, crashed into a helper engine, on the rear of an extra freight train this afternoon near Husted station, 18 miles north of Colorado Springs. The passenger train was pulled by two heavy engines and the crews jumped, thus saving their lives. The crew of the freight train escaped uninjured.

Among those injured were: Mrs. J. H. Mease, Vernal, Utah, sprained arm. Mrs. Mary H. Albright, Republic, Ohio, 81 years old, broken ribs. Mrs. L. E. Hlatt, Indianola, Iowa, leg bruised. Mrs. K. S. Buckingham, Chicago, right knee injured.

"CAP" STREETER IS IN TROUBLE AGAIN

CHICAGO, April 4.—George Wellington Streeter who recently lost his thirty year battle in the courts for possession of a tract of land on the lake front known as the "District of Lake Michigan" and valued at several million dollars was remanded to jail today for contempt of court. It was claimed that he erected a windmill on the property in defiance of the court's order.

RETURNS TO LONDON FROM BRITISH FRONT

LONDON, April 4.—Premier Lloyd George returned to London this morning from a visit to the front says an official announcement tonight. The British prime minister accompanied M. Clemenceau, the French premier. They visited Field Marshal Haig and Generals Foch, Petain, Pershing and Bliss.

ORDER OF RED EAGLE

Amsterdam, April 4.—Emperor William has conferred on Baron von Richthofen, aviator, the Order of the Red Eagle with crown and swords.

BITTER FIGHTING RESUMED ALONG WESTERN SECTOR

The German Attacks Yield Some Gains to the Invaders

After several days of comparative inactivity along the battle front in Picardy, bitter fighting has been resumed along the western sector of the salient in the lines of the entente allies.

Attacks by the Germans against the British and French are admitted to have yielded some gains to the invader in the critical sectors just to the east of the city of Amiens.

The fighting according to latest reports has been heaviest in the neighborhood of Hamel, where the British were forced back slightly, and in the triangle formed by the rivers Luce and Aves, further to the south, where the French were forced to give ground. Nothing is known as to the details of the battles in these sectors, but the fact that the Germans have been in a degree successful would seem to indicate that they have succeeded in bringing up some of their heavier cannon and divisions with which to continue their attempts to capture Amiens.

Reports from the French and British fronts have mentioned heavy rains, which would mean that the Germans have been working under a severe handicap in bringing up guns, ammunition and supplies to the front. The battle field over which the allies have retreated was left in a devastated condition, the roads and bridges being mined by the retreating forces. The lull in the battle for the last few days probably was caused by the inability of the Germans to move their heavy supply trains over these roads, together with the necessity of re-organizing the shattered divisions which bore the brunt of the fighting after they had passed the first field of fire of their heavier guns.

The British since retaking Ayeette, south of Aras, have not resumed their offensive operations, so far as reported by London, but the German official statement says that four attacks by the entente forces against the heights southwest of Moreuil were repulsed with heavy losses. There are no reports of fighting except outpost encounters along the French lines on the Oise river. There have been heavy artillery bombardments of British positions on the Menin road and at Passchendaele east and north-east of Ypres, according to London.

As yet, however, there is nothing to foreshadow an effort by the Germans to attack there. Confronting them are well fortified lines, and high ground held by the British and it is improbable that a serious attempt to break thru will be made in that sector.

On the French front before Rheims and Verdun successful raiding operations have been carried out by the French. The French report heavy artillery engagements north of Montdidier sector which has witnessed savage fighting and where the Germans have been foiled in their efforts to advance towards the Paris-Amiens railroad.

Nothing has been reported from the Italian front and it is not likely that an attack has been launched there by the Austrians who have gathered an enormous army for a possible drive southward into the plains of Northern Italy.

Driven to take measures for their defense the Armenians have organized an army and have captured Erzerum from the Turks as well as other points in the neighborhood of that city.

The taking of German troops in Finland is apparently going forward reports stating that 40,000 men have arrived at Hangö, a fortified port on the extreme western tip of the Finnish peninsula.

WILL ENTER ENSIGN TRAINING SCHOOL

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., April 4.—George Illauser, captain of the 1917 University of Minnesota football team and star shot putter will enter the ensign naval training school in Chicago. He is the fourth Gopher star to enter the school, the others being Randy Gillen, basketball captain; Paul Carroll and Frank McNally.

BASEBALL RESULTS

ANOTHER PHASE OF THE TEUTONIC PEACE OFFENSIVES

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Italy like the other allies regards the recent speech of Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister as merely another phase of the Teutonic peace offensives. An official despatch from Rome today says:

"Italian political circles consider the speech of Count Czernin as the clearest manifestation of the Austro-German pro-peace propaganda. In spite, however, of the apparently graceful tone of the Czernin's public with President Wilson in order to assure him that Austria recognizes his sympathies for her, the Italian press finds that the Austrian premier's acceptance of the four fundamental principles of President Wilson's second message is flatly contradicted by recent action of Austria. Tremendous concentration of forces is being made against Italy and Count Czernin declared in his speech that French and Italian aspirations are 'foolish utopias.'"

FIRST WAR YEAR COSTS NATION $9,000,000,000

More Than One-Half Has Gone to Loans to Allies

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Nine billion dollars is the approximate cost to the United States of one year of war.

More than one half has gone to loans to allies and will be repaid eventually; over one third has been spent for the army and military establishment; one tenth for the navy, and one fifteenth for shipbuilding.

Just one sixth of this big war cost has been raised by taxation and other ordinary sources of revenue, and the balance has come from the sale of liberty bonds and certificates of indebtedness.

Enormous as this war expenditures may seem to a country, whose government in peace times cost between $700,000,000 and $800,000,000 they are less than Great Britain's and are only about two thirds of estimates made by officials less than a year ago. Slow progress of the shipbuilding program and the retarding of the outpouring of war supplies are regarded by officials as the chief reasons why expenses did not equal estimates.

Government expenses now are running about a billion dollars a month with somewhat less than half going to the allies, who spend the greater part of their loans for war supplies in this country. Since declaration of war April 6, 1917, the government's actual expenditures have been more than $9,800,000,000 but about $800,000,000 of this sum would have been spent for normal activities even if the United States had not entered the war. Ordinary expenditures under which the treasury classifies all outlays for operation of the governmental machinery and war enterprises, since the declaration of war have been approximately $5,080,000,000.

Actual payments to allies amounted to about $4,743,000,000. Income from internal revenue, most of which is represented by war taxes and from customs and miscellaneous sources, was run up to about $1,535,000,000 and the two liberty loans have brought to the treasury a little less than $5,800,000,000. Small collections from war savings and thrift stamps in the last four months amount to $140,000,000.

There are a number of other minor receipts and expenditures but they don't materially affect the condition of the public's coffers.

DROPS SAFELY 2500 FEET WITH PARACHUTE

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, April 4.—Rodman Law, ballist and aeronaut, now attached to the fifth aero squadron Kelly Field, Thursday noon jumped from an airplane at a height of 2,500 feet and with the aid of a parachute landed safely on the flying field at Kelly Field. He was taken in the plane by Edward Stinson an instructor at Kelly Field. Mr. Law is making a series of experiments at Kelly Field to demonstrate the feasibility of jumping from an airplane. He is a brother of Ruth Law and Edward Stinson is a brother of Katherine Stinson.

GERMANS DELIVER TERRIFIC ATTACK AGAINST FRENCH

Make Small Gain Despite Storm of Fire from French Guns

PARIS, April 4.—German troops numbering well over a hundred thousand delivered a terrific attack against the French along a front of nearly nine miles from Grivesnes to north of the Amiens-Roye road. They were met with a storm of fire from the French guns and although the assaults were repeated time after time they succeeded in gaining only a small section of ground.

The French retained Grivesnes, but the Germans occupied the villages of Mailly, Raineval and Morisel.

The announcement by the war office tonight of this offensive also says that by a powerful counter-attack the French made progress at this point.

The text of the statement reads:

"The battle was resumed this morning with extreme violence in the region north of Montdidier and still continues. On a front of about fifteen kilometers from Grivesnes as far as north of the road between Amiens and Roye, the Germans attacked with enormous forces, showing a firm determination to break thru our front at any cost.

"Up to the present we have identified by prisoners eleven enemy divisions.

"Our troops with nitrepid courage resisted the shock of the assailant masses, who were mowed down by our artillery fire. Despite their efforts ten times repeated the Germans succeeded, at the cost of sanguinary sacrifices, in gaining only a few hundred meters of terrain and occupying the villages of Mailly, Raineval and Morisel, the neighboring heights of which we hold.

"Grivesnes, which was attacked with particular violence remained in the hands of our troops, who after having broken down all the assaults, counter-attacked with vigor and realized progress at this point. Between Montdidier and Lassigny there was great activity by the two artilleries."

APPLICATIONS FILED MUST BE COMPLETE

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today directed that copies of all applications for new tariff increases filed with it must be furnished the public utilities commissions in states affected by the proposed advances and that all applications must contain a complete and accurate statement of the reasons for the requested increases.

Applications found to contain incomplete, inaccurate, or unreliable data will be denied summarily, but without prejudice to the applicant, the commission's order said.

SERGEANT MAJOR OF CAVALRY KILLED

NEW YORK, April 4.—Announcement that Etienne de Sadeleer, 28, Sergeant Major of Cavalry, attached to the Belgian interpreter's corps was killed at Amiens, France, March 26 during the bombardment of the city by German aviators was made here today by the young officer's father, the Hon. L. de Sadeleer, minister of state for Belgium and a member of the special Belgian mission to the United States.

Great Britain is to raise her draft limits to include men of fifty five years of age. The people of this country should heed the lesson. Before this war is brought to an end we may all have a chance.

Farmers of twenty eight states have stated they were not seeking a higher price for wheat, that in their judgment the price was high enough. They said they wished the country to know that they were not profiteering and they felt a higher price would cause the price of bread to advance, working a hardship on the poor of the country. They evidently believe in giving the other fellow a chance.

Elections throught the country have been satisfactory to the loyal people of the country. We do not mean that we are ready to celebrate a party or partisan victory.

As between the two great political parties the result has been mixed, but wherever the issue was one of loyalty to our government and its institutions the result has been very gratifying. Wisconsin is certain of a loyal representative in the senate. The process of elimination has begun and indicates that the state may succeed in ridding herself of that blot, LaFollette.

A speaker a few days ago rather thrilled his hearers by saying "the war will not be won by Red Cross, or Knights of Columbus or Y. M. C. A. or the hundred and one other workers. They all help, but the main work, the suffering, the sacrifice, of life even, is borne by the man in uniform, in the field and in the trenches. They will win the war. And we can only help. Some ease their conscience by giving what they do not want, what they will not miss. Is that true patriotism? Some give their children, give the lives most dear to them. Can you make up your mind to give something to support "our boys," something that will make you feel that you too are making a sacrifice?"

A NATION'S CREED.

The city of Baltimore recently offered a prize of one thousand dollars for the composition of a "National Citizens Creed," the contest being approved by the president. The following creed was selected from several thousand submitted, because it was brief and embodied the best American ideas as expressed by the founders of the government.

The creed reads:

"I believe in the United States of America, as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity, for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes. I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies."

The author is William Tyler Page, of Friendship Heights, Md., a few miles from Washington. He is a descendant of a president of the United States, and a signer of the declaration of independence.

WHEN THE WAR IS OVER.

It won't be so very funny to go hoardin' of your money, for you'll find by bein' miser you have given aid to Kaiser, when the war is over. You'll be shakin' neath your collars for your eagles, dimes, and dollars, and you'll wish you hadn't kept 'em for the Kaiser. He'll come and get them when the war is over; less you do a bit for freedom, those bright dollars you won't need 'em, for the green place where you'll be goin' when the war is over. If you do your best for "Glory," write your name in bonds and glory, you will find a golden treasure with your money back full measure when the war is over. If your "Liberty" you're boosting, not on German fence found, reading, you may live in peace and splendor with two feet upon the fender when the war is over.

WISCONSIN IS LOYAL.

The election of Mr. Lenroot in Wisconsin is a deserved recognition of his valued services in the lower house. While he has not hesitated to at times criticize the administration he has upheld the hands of the president on all important war measures. His election must be gratifying to the great majority of the people of Wisconsin. The election returns have not given the state a fair deal in some localities. Many people have been inclined to consider the vote for Victor Berger, socialist, as a disloyal vote and indicating pro-German feeling. Those who know the strength of the Socialist party in Wisconsin do not so construe it and see in the vote cast for Berger simply an evidence of the party's normal strength without any special relation to the war question. The word disloyal should be no means be applied to Wisconsin.

STATE AID IN LOCAL TROUBLES.

Bootlegging conditions in Jacksonville are not nearly so bad as in some other cities, but the fact remains that local authorities have not stamped out the illegal selling of liquor to the fullest extent possible. No doubt Assistant Attorney General Middleton yesterday said that the real reason bootleggers are permitted to flourish in Jacksonville is because there has not been the proper team work by the state's attorney, sheriff and city police departments.

It is quite well known fact that while there have been no open ruptures among these officials, that there has not been hearty cooperation. In a community of this kind the desired enforcement of law cannot come about when any one department fails in giving its full support to another or where differences or jealousies creep in.

However it is conceded that the state officers have greater authority than city or county officers, whether or not that be legal authority or simply a matter of prestige. The state certainly has measures that it can summon to its aid which are lacking by local officers, and has first of all a very distinct advantage in the funds and forces for collecting evidence.

The state of Illinois is fortunate in having an attorney general in Mr. Brundage who considers it his duty to give attention to these local affairs. Evidently Mr. Brundage does not wish to confine his duties simply to those pointed out by precedent in his office but is willing to exercise the strength of his office for the proper enforcement of the law in any county in the state of Illinois. In the Illinois railroad rate case in which the principle was involved of the right of a state to regulate its own railroad affairs without federal interference, Mr. Brundage indicated his ability to grapple with large problems. He has shown similar ability in other cases which have had his attention and in these smaller but vastly important affairs of giving attention to the proper enforcement of law in the various counties of the state, the attorney general is following a high ideal of public service. He is evidencing a desire to afford to the people of the state the largest amount of efficient service that his office can provide. His term record as far as written entitles him to the respect and the gratitude of the people of Illinois.

FRANCIS JOSEPH.
Old Francis Joseph's sleeping, removed from grief and woe, while nations, worn and weeping, thru war's grim motions go; his sleeping with his fathers, who kicked up all the potholes; no more he frets and bothers,—it's well for Francis Joe. The tool of Bill, the Kaiser, he let war's blood-hounds loose; he was no sinner, wiser, than thus to raise the dence; but now he's all unworried; he's resting, calm, unfurried, his sideboards neatly curried, he's found the final truth, Oh, lucky, lucky ruler! Forgotten is the foe, enjoying, in your cooler, the sleep that dead ones know; how many monarchs, sighing, and sick of death and dying, are you with envy eyeing, O foxy Francis Joe? How many kings would barter their finest motor car, equipped with patent starter, to slumber where you are? Methinks that Carl and Billy, whom blood has rendered silly, would love your chamber chilly, with marble gates ajar. Oh, still on France's meadows the crimson wavelets flow; and still, like stealthy shadows, men's ghosts move to and fro; the fighting men are leaner, war's strategems grow meaner; you do not care a weiner, or pretzel, Francis Joe.

PATRIOTIC TEA SOCIAL AND FINANCIAL SUCCESS

Surgical Dressings Class Hostess Thursday Afternoon—Red Cross Sale Saturday—Other Winchester Items of Interest.

Winchester, April 4.—The ladies of the surgical dressings class gave a patriotic tea Thursday afternoon and evening at the pleasant home of Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Fletcher. The house was beautifully decorated with large and small flags and flowers and red ferns. During the hours Miss Louise Frost and Margaret Priest gave a number of vocal numbers. Ella May Lashmet recited. Five high school boys also favored with a number of vocal selections. These were James Coultas, Albert Hains, Wayne Fletcher, Thomas L. Lashmet and Earl Lashmet. Refreshments were served.

RED CROSS SALE SATURDAY.—Much interest is being taken in the Red Cross sale which is to be held in the public square here Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. Tonight the committee reported that they had received cash donations amounting to $275 and that 75 articles other than those enumerated in Wednesday's Journal would be placed on the auction block.

NEWS NOTES.—Cecil Brown has been detained at his home the past few days on account of that popular malady, the measles.

Albert Hains and sister Misses Hainsletta and Julia were Master visitors a short time Tuesday.

Miss Helen Frost visited the high school Thursday afternoon after having been out of school for several months on account of illness.

The Red Cross chapter today shipped a box of refugee garments to headquarters in Chicago, containing more than two hundred articles of apparel.

JUDGE O. P. THOMPSON
PLEADS FOR SOLDIERS

Appears Before County Board In Behalf of Soldiers' Monument—Plea Is Masterful One—Board Takes Matter Under Advisement.

The dove of peace hovered lovingly over the county board and the old soldiers yesterday when a crowd of old soldiers gathered at the court house to hear Judge O. P. Thompson plead their case before the gentlemen and had arranged for a special attention to the fact that these statements had not come from the veterans who could not be held responsible for the utterances of others. They felt they voiced the sentiments of the post.

Accordingly a statement was drawn up as follows:

"The old soldiers of Morgan county wish to say to the county board that they disclaim any statements by any one reflecting on the honesty and integrity of the board. For do they charge or believe they were actuated by dishonest motives in reference to the Soldiers and Sailors monument matter. We wish the newspapers to give publicity to our views in the matter."

This was taken out into the hall where the veterans were waiting and endorsed by them informally. All then entered the county board court room where, on motion of Capt. J. M. Swales the statement was formally adopted.

Judge Thompson then made a masterly address which it would be a delight to present in full if space permitted. He said in part:

"We appear before the board today in the proper spirit and appreciate the position in giving us a hearing regarding what is to be done in the selection of the monument to be erected to the memory of the departed soldiers and sailors."

It is now more than two years since these men initiated the movement for a monument. Other counties had done the same and they felt it but just for Morgan county to vote the money for this purpose. They did all they could to ring about the result.

The old soldiers are like other people. They make mistakes in their attitude toward the county board but they mean all right. You have seen the members of the monument association in December, 1916. Plans and models were called for and submitted. The association had two votes for what we call No. 1. One voted for No. 2 and one for No. 3. The intention of the act of the legislature was to have suitable structures erected to the memory of the dead and they should be such as will appeal to the people of the present day. The young should be favored. The monument should be the nation's defenders who risked life and all that was dear to them in the defense of their country. The monument should tell the story; not the base but the superstructure.

Desiring to have the best skill in choosing the model, after making their own decision the association called in the state art commission to pass on the appearance and state architect to pass on the durability and proper mechanical construction. Both favored No. 1. So with these decisions the old soldiers came before you today and respectfully ask that their wishes in the choice of model be respected.

As a citizen of Morgan I must say after the state art commission, the state architect and the majority of the monument association all have favored No. 1. Then I certainly feel it is right to grant the wishes of the old soldiers. The supreme court has more than once reversed its decisions. You have the full power without any lowering of dignity or humbling yourselves in any way to alter the resolution you adopted regarding the choice of No. 1. This is a session of the court not concluded and you have full power without any lowering of dignity or humbling yourselves in any way to change your minds. This question has been fully passed on by the supreme court. (The speaker cited the case.)

You have signed no contract and cannot all be held by what you have done so far. So now speaking for the old soldiers I respectfully ask that you reconsider your action. It is not for the people in Chicago, or

"The Narrow Trail"

From the story by William S. Hart

It is the first story ever written by the great delineator of western character, and is built around narratives related to him by an early settler in Dakota Territory, who, when Hart was a boy, gave him his first lesson in horsemanship.

It co-stars Fritz, Hart's famous Pinto, which should be of interest to the pony's thousands of admirers in all parts of the country.

It is a typical Hart picture of wild out-of-door life, filled with wondrous pictures of the great West, and throbbing with tense incidents and thrilling adventures.

Bible Class Meets Thursday.

The regular Thursday night supper of the Junior Bible Class was held Thursday evening at the Y. M. C. A. with about 36 of the boys in attendance. The ladies of the church served an excellent supper.

After the conclusion of the bible class a scout meeting was held. The boy scouts will distribute all of the posters for the third liberty loan, both for their own and the general campaign.

Tonight will be presented the war service medals to the members of the scout troops entitled to them thru their work during the second loan drive.

Jacksonville or St. Louis to say what model shall be used. It does seem reasonable that it should be the long sleep and why not? ought to be selected for an individual the members of the family chose it and so here these grey haired men come and respectfully ask you to let them choose what they want for their dead brothers. Is it not strange that they being equal how can it be otherwise?

If they had asked for something unsuitable the case would be far different but they have the endorsement of the highest authority in the land. These old soldiers will not be here long. Soon they will answer the last roll call. Soon they will be sleeping the long sleep and why not? ought to have the voice in the selection of this monument? They are the family. You are not. Ought they not to be heard? From Fort Sumpter to Appomattox they went together and is it strange that they are close to each other now?

When they were young they voluntarily left home and all that was dear. They suffered untold hardships. They came home weak and debilitated. Their ranks are rapidly thinning. Is it not right that they should be heard now? They want the names of Morgan county's veterans placed indelibly on this monument so that they can point to the structure with pride.

You gentlemen have it in your power with all self respect to change your decision and you will be honored for doing what these defenders of the country ask. The city council has expressed itself on the subject so there will be no controversy and now the veterans come before you respectfully asking you to grant their desires.

I thank you for permission to speak to you on this subject.

On motion of W. D. McCormick the veterans thanked Judge Thompson for their thanks for his fine address.

The county board took the matter under advisement and will announce their decision when it is reached.

See the new line of neckties at 35c, 50c, 75c, $1.00 and $1.50—one of the largest lines in the city at Tomlinson's.

WALLACES WHIP HILL'S WARRIORS

Win Exciting Game by Score of 7 to 4—Dunsmomb Held Hills to Two Bingles.

Wallace's team whipped Hill's team in the intramural game on Illinois field Thursday afternoon by score of 7 to 4. Dunsmomb huring for the Wallace cohorts had the deadly accuracy of a french artillerist and the Hill hitters completely puzzled. He allowed but two hits and struck out ten men. Wallace was touched for six hits, three of them being for extra bases. Ferreira was the hitting star getting a single and triple. Both teams played loose game in the field. Dunsmomb's support wobbled eight times and came near losing the game despite his sterling work.

THE PARKS

Active work is being done by Supt. Schafer and his assistants in the parks of the city.

Duncan park has been raked and cleaned ready for spring rains and sun.

Flowers have been set out and all possible done to beautify it for the season.

Central park is waiting for rain and sun to start the grass seed that has been sown. It has been cleaned ready to summer in due time seats will be installed along the walks.

In Nichols park the seats have been placed in the pavilion and along the walks. The grass looks fine and all is in good shape. The grass cutting machinery has been put in shape and all is getting ready for spring. The carpenter work on the new monkey house is done and now the structure awaits the arrival of the wire cage work. The swimming pool work will be completed as soon as the monkeys can be moved to their new quarters. The bath house will be considered at the next board meeting. The pillars under the porch of the large pavilion will be placed as needed.

ACTIVITY IN LAKE DIVISION RED CROSS. Indianapolis, April 3.—The Lake Division Red Cross during February shipped 3,331,411 separate articles to the division warehouses, according to the tabulations just completed by Carl W. Fuller, acting director of the division bureau of supplies, and announced here. The total value of the articles was $1,015,780.74. Total receipts and their value were as follows: Surgical dressings, 2,704,981, value $115,483.27; hospital garments, 186,909, value $204,479.54; hospital supplies, 151,852, value $43,468.66; refugee garments, 408, value $1,115.77; articles for soldiers, (practically all knitted goods) 237,488, value $646,333.50; miscellaneous articles, 49,773, no value estimated. "The women of Indian, Kentucky and Ohio cannot be given too much credit for their splendid work in turning out this great volume of work," said James H. Garfield, division manager. "We are extremely hopeful that there will be no lessening of production."

PLAN GREAT MILITARY REVIEW IN TEXAS. Fort Worth, Texas, April 3.—The greatest military review ever witnessed in Texas or possibly in the south, will be held within the next few days. The Panther division, made up of Texas and Oklahoma troops from Camp Bowie, will provide the spectacle. It is expected that 27,000 troops will pass in review before General Greble, commander at Camp Bowie, and that no less than 100,000 persons from North Texas and Oklahoma will view them. The troops will march thru the streets of Fort Worth and military officers estimate that it will require between four to six hours for the troops to pass a given point. The division now is fully equipped with rifles, pistols and bayonets and every man is well informed. However, not all the machine gun companies nor artillery batteries have received their ordnance. All of the seven regimental bands will take part in the review. Governor Hobbie of Texas, Governor Williams of Oklahoma and their staffs have been invited to attend.

RADIO SCHOOL AT KELLY FIELD. San Antonio, Texas, April 3.—The various noises and sounds that are to be heard at Kelly Field will be augmented soon by the "click" of a radio school. Operators will be trained for aerial service. Heretofore radio students have been receiving training at Galveston.

STORY OF UNITED STATES FLAG

Various Types Used in Colonial Days—How The States Are Represented.

Washington, April 4.—Today the American flag is waving over the shell-pitted battlefields of Europe, carried side by side with the colors of France, Great Britain, Belgium and other nations allied in the great war for freedom and democracy. At home, probably 10,000,000 American flags are waving serenely in the varied breezes of our spacious land, significant of the calm and dignified, yet deep and lasting patriotism of the people of the United States.

Be this our native land or adopted country, we pledge allegiance to that flag, unmoved as we pass, and wear it in miniature as a token of our loyalty. An yet how many Americans are sufficiently acquainted with the origin and history of "Old Glory" to be able to recall that today is the centennial anniversary of the adoption of the American flag in its present form—the flag consisting of thirteen horizontal stripes of alternate red and white, representing the thirteen original States with a white star in a blue field for each State of the Union.

Many Early Flags. Naturally, there were many forms of early flags, especially colonial types used by the individual colonies and militia regiments before the flag of the United States was established by the Continental Congress on June 14, 1777. This act required that the flag of the United States be of thirteen alternate red and white stripes, and that the Union be thirteen white stars on a blue field, representing a new constellation, but it did not define how many points the stars should have, how they should be arranged, nor make provision for additional ones.

The men who carved the nation from the chaos of political strife did not foresee the possibilities of forty-eight commonwealths when they designed the flag. All the empire their minds could then compass was hedged about with territory of other nations. So when new States began to appear Washington added that a new stripe and a new star be added for each newcomer. By 1818, when territorial expansion was proceeding on a stupendous scale, it was seen that the flag was about to become an unlovely cumbersome affair, for it then had twenty stars and twenty stripes, so Congress enacted a law that gave us the flag of today—thirteen stripes for the original colonies, and stars arranged in parallel lines on the union, one for each State as it was admitted. The war department determines the order in which the stars are to be placed, and the revised flag comes into official use the Fourth of July following the admission of the State bring the star.

Many styles and forms of the stars and stripes were in existence up to 1842 and it was not until President Taft's administration that definite specifications were drawn up. On Oct. 22, 1912, an executive order concerning the flag was made and it provided for the specific arrangement of the stars. They were to be arranged in six horizontal rows of eight stars each. Starting in the upper-left hand corner and placing each row from left to right, the star corresponding to each State is named in the order of the States' ratification of the Constitution.

State Representation. The following list shows at a glance which State is represented by each star: First Row—No. 1, Delaware; 2, Pennsylvania; 3, New Jersey; 4, Georgia; 5, Connecticut; 6, Massachusetts; 7, Maryland; 8, South Carolina. Second Row—No. 9, New Hampshire; 10, Virginia; 11, New York; 12, North Carolina; 13, Rhode Island; 14, Vermont; 15, Kentucky; 16, Tennessee. Third Row—No. 17, Ohio; 18, Louisiana; 19, Indiana; 20, Mississippi; 21, Illinois; 22, Alabama; 23, Maine; 24, Missouri. Fourth Row—No. 25, Arkansas; 26, Michigan; 27, Florida; 28, Texas; 29, Iowa; 30, Wisconsin; 31, California; 32, Minnesota. Fifth Row—No. 33, Oregon; 34, Kansas; 35, West Virginia; 36, Nevada; 37, Nebraska; 38, Colorado; 39, North Dakota; 40, South Dakota. Sixth Row—No. 41, Montana; 42, Washington; 43, Idaho; 44, Wyoming; 45, Utah; 46, Oklahoma; 47, New Mexico; 48, Arizona.

Mrs. W. C. Pearce and Mrs. Claude Head, two very pleasant ladies and well known in their home in Manchester, were arrivals in the city yesterday.

GIRLS! MAKE LEMON LOTION TO WHITEN AND BEAUTIFY SKIN

In all weathers the skin and complexion can be kept wonderfully clear, soft and white by the use of this inexpensive lemon lotion which any girl or woman can easily prepare. The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold cream. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no seeds will get in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach the face, neck, arms and hands as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoother and beautifier. Just try it. Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion. It naturally should help to soften, freshen, bleach and bring out the roses and hidden beauty of any skin. Those who will make it a habit to gently massage this lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands once or twice daily may be repaid with a skin that is flexible and young looking and a peach-like complexion. ## MEN AT CAMP TRAVIS UNDERGO INSPECTION

Every Enlisted Man at the Texas Camp Examined as to Physical and Mental Condition—Officers Pleased with New Recruits.

Camp Travis, San Antonio, Texas, April 3.—Every enlisted man at Camp Travis has undergone a personal inspection as to his physical condition as well as mental. Major General Henry T. Allen has been conducting these examinations for quite a while and did not stop until every man in camp was given an examination.

It has been a long accustomed practice of inspecting troops in parade formation. Officers at this camp were not satisfied with this general inspection but wanted a more comprehensive and detailed report of each man. It was explained that a man likely to be the least bit nervous or liable to get "rattled" during an attack or movement was not the man for the front line trench. Rather, he belonged in the kitchen, the quartermasters corps or some other non-combatant organization. It has been announced by General Allen that men in the 90th division almost without exception are fit for practically any emergency that should arise.

The several thousand new recruits from Texas and Oklahoma who have arrived at the camp within the past several weeks are getting down to army life in splendid fashion. Officers are quoted as being pleased with the new arrivals and the quickness in which they receive orders. As a precaution against disease the new arrivals are kept in detention several days before sent into the main camp. However, this does not exempt them from training, for they receive light drills during their stay in detention.

Some officers in Texas have been quoted as having expressed the opinion that the present training of American soldiers in open warfare will be changed, as a result of Secretary of War Baker's personal visits to the battle fields of France. General Allen declared recently that the open warfare would continue to be taught the American troops and expressed opinion that the Americans would have a chance to settle their differences with the boche in open fashion.

"There will be open warfare," he said. "It will not always be trench fighting. We are learning something besides to hide in trenches and throw grenades."

General Allen only recently returned from an extended visit to the various war fronts and bases

LAUNDRY ESTABLISHED AT CAMP TRAVIS

San Antonio, Texas, April 3.—A laundry equal to doing the work of 30,000 officers and men has been established at Camp Travis.

The laundry was established by the government and is equipped with late modeled machinery. In addition to taking care of the work of the camp, it is prepared to receive outside work. The business has been a success from the start and the net profit already has run into many thousands of dollars, although it has been in operation only four months. This is said to be the largest laundry in this section of the country.

LIBERTY BOND BILL

Treasury Announces that Latest Issue of Bonds Will Mature in Ten Years.

Washington, April 4.—Legislation for the third issue of the $500,000,000, 10-year maturity bonds was signed by President Wilson today.

Earlier in the day the treasury announced that the bonds would mature in ten years, that the loan campaign opening Saturday will continue four weeks until May 4 and that after first payment of five per cent on subscription, installments of 20, 35 and 40 per cent would be due May 28, July 18 and August 15.

Within an hour after President Wilson signed the bond bill, the first completed bond of the third issue came from the press of the bureau of engraving and printing. It was a $50 "baby bond" and was set aside by James J. Wilmet, director of the bureau, for special disposition to be determined later. Forty thousand more bonds will be ready in the morning, 100,000 by Saturday and thereafter they will be turned out at the rate of 500,000 a day to supply demands for cash sales and immediate delivery.

EDITOR'S ACTIONS TO BE INVESTIGATED

NEW YORK, April 4.—At the request of the French ambassador the activities of Senator Charles Humbert, editor of Le Journal of Paris, in this country will be investigated by Morton E. Lewis, state attorney general. It was announced here tonight. The inquiry to be begun in New York next week will be conducted in connection with the French government's prosecution of Senator Humbert on a charge of having had transactions with Germany.

Governor Whitman today signed an order authorizing Alfred L. Becker, deputy attorney general to examine witnesses. Mr. Becker conducted the recent inquiry into the operations of Bolo Pasha in America. During that investigation the name of Senator Humbert was frequently mentioned and the evidence obtained here resulted, when presented at Bolo Pasha's trial in Paris, not only in the Le Vantime's conviction and sentence to death, but led to the arrest of Senator Humbert and two of his assistants, Pierre Lenoir and William Des-Ouches, who are accused by France of having communicated directly with German agents.

MOTION TO ADJOURN
CUTS SPIRITED DEBATE

WASHINGTON, April 4.—What promised to be a spirited debate in the house today, precipitated by charges of Representative Britten of Illinois, Republican, that military juries are keeping the marines out of the fighting line in France, was cut short by Majority Leader Kitchin with a motion to adjourn. Mr. Britten said Secretary Daniels was anxious to see the marines go to France and called on the secretary to tell the country who is "responsible for this injustice." Several Democrats sought to reply, but Representative Shirley of Kentucky had spoken when the discussion was cut short. Recalling that Mr. Britten had proposed to amend the draft act so that no man called into service under that law could be made to fight in a foreign country without his consent, Mr. Shirley added:

"I am glad to note that the gentleman from Illinois has changed his mind to the extent that he wants some men to go."

GERMAN LEADERS IN IMPORTANT MEETING

AMSTERDAM, April 4.—At an important conference today at German headquarters the emperor, Field Marshal von Hindenburg, General von Ludendorff, and Dr. Richard F. von Kuehlmann, the German foreign minister, Count Czernin's speech was discussed, among other matters. It is understood Von Kuehlmann will deliver an important speech at his earliest opportunity.

Count Czernin is expected at Berlin and at headquarters early next week. The National Zeitung said that proceedings against Prince Lichnowski have been started as a result of his memorandum fixing the blame of the war on Germany.

STOMACH DEAD
MAN STILL LIVES

People who suffer from sour stomach, fermentation of food, distress after eating and indigestion, and seek relief in large chunks of artificial digestors, are killing their stomachs by inaction just as surely as the victim of morphine is deadening and injuring beyond repair. What the stomach of every sufferer from indigestion needs is a good prescription that will build up his stomach, put strength, energy and elasticity into it and make it sturdy enough to digest a hearty meal without artificial aid.

The best prescription for indigestion ever written is sold by druggists everywhere and by Cover & Shreve's Drug Store, and is rigidly guaranteed to build up the stomach and cure indigestion, or money back.

This prescription is named MI-o-na, and is sold in small tablet form in large boxes, for only a few cents. Remember the name, MI-o-na stomach tablets. They never fail.

SIX PHYSICIANS
RELEASED UNDER BOND

Charged With Violation of the Harrison Drug Act.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 4.—Six Minneapolis physicians, one of them a member of the medical officers reserves, who has been in service tonight were released under bond after arraignment in district court today, charged with violation of the Harrison drug act. The physicians pleaded not guilty to indictments returned after federal authorities had investigated reports that drugs had been sold to drafted men in an apparent effort to disqualify them from military service. The court gave the defendants until Saturday to enter demurrers to the indictments or to change their pleas. The indicted men are: Lieutenant Benjamin Shallet, U. S. M. O. R., arrested today on his return from Fort Riley, Kans., and Doctors C. D. Whipple, H. W. Darby, V. H. Wilcox, R. S. Brown and Daniel Gordon.

WEALTHY FARMER
BEATEN AS PRO-GERMAN.

Clinton, Ill. April 4.—Citizens of Kenny, near here, late yesterday administered a severe beating to William Heiserman, a wealthy farmer, nailed two big American flags to his house and informed him that if he took them down he would be treated to a coat of tar and feathers. The drubbing which took place in front of the post office at Kenny was the result of alleged anti-Americanism.

SENT TO KENTUCKY TO INJURE HORSE INDUSTRY

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 4.—Special Circuit Court Judge George C. Webb told the Fayette county grand jury here today he had reliable information tending to show that many emissaries have been sent to Kentucky to injure the horse industry as part of the German propaganda. He charged the jury to do its utmost to uncover any activities of German spies and emissaries and to either indict them for treason or furnish the federal government with evidence to summarily deal with them.

The court indicated that agents of the department of justice are sitting the activities of a number of persons.

Jacksonville Young Woman Gets Back Picture and Letter She Sent to a Soldier—Recipient is Colored Man Who Said He Had Too Much Respect for Donor to Keep Them.

A Jacksonville young lady who does not wish to have her name used has permitted the use of the following soldier's letter. Sometime since this young lady noted in a paper the names of a number of soldiers at Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio, who would like to correspond with young ladies at home. So partially as a matter of patriotic effort and possibly because of an added reason of romance, she selected one of the names, wrote the soldier a cheerful, newsy letter accompanied with her picture.

CITY AND COUNTY CLOSE IN RECREATION RACE

TOTAL SUBSCRIPTIONS LAST NIGHT AMOUNTED TO $2,344.
Only Three County Precincts Have Made Complete Reports But $1,000 Mark Has Been Passed—Jacksonville Workers Will Meet at Luncheon Today for Reports—Goal Is Surely In Sight.

Members of the teams who have been canvassing Jacksonville precinct for the war recreation fund will meet at luncheon at the Y. M. C. A. at 12 o'clock today to make their reports. Dr. W. E. Spoons, campaign chairman, stated last night that the total contributions reported from city and county amounted to $2,344. Of this sum $1,315 has been given by the people in Jacksonville and $1,028 by the county districts. These figures show how very close is the contest between the city and county in this automobile race for honors. Only three of the county precincts have reported, two of the number being Chapin and Woodson who went over the top the first day and the third one is Concord where the good record of the other two precincts was equaled.

Team Reports Today.
While the sum thus far reported is not quite half of the total needed the chairman and committee realize collections have been made in a number of precincts and that these have not yet been reported. The team reports will be called for at the luncheon today and the expectation is that before the night passes the goal will be reached. Possibly some reports will not be in from outlying precincts but the committee knows that the money will be in and that by Saturday at least a telegram can go to headquarters indicating that Morgan County has done her full duty in this war time contribution.

An effort is being made to solicit every person in Jacksonville for a subscription but any person who has been omitted is requested to notify the committee headquarters in the Morrison building, or better still, to leave the contribution at the office today. Subscriptions of any size will be counted and welcome additions and the person who gives $50 will be counted as doing his full part just as well as the person whose gift is measured by dollars. The important thing is to give and thus have some part in this necessary fund.

MISS AKERS SUFFERS A SERIOUS INJURY
Former Jacksonville Lady Struck By Auto in Kansas City Saturday Still in Unconscious Condition.

Miss Lydia E. Akers of Kansas City was struck by a taxi-cab at 6:30 o'clock last Saturday evening and suffered grave injuries. Up to yesterday she had not regained consciousness at St. Luke's Hospital where she was taken immediately following the accident. Dr. L. M. Clampt, a cousin, was summoned to Kansas City last Sunday evening by a telegram telling of the accident. He returned to Jacksonville Thursday and stated last night that there was little or no change in Miss Akers' condition.

The injured woman sustained a fractured left arm and was badly hurt about the head, suffering a number of scalp wounds, and it may be concussion of the brain. Her age, 74 years, also makes her recovery problematical.

Miss Akers was attempting to cross a street at the time of the unfortunate occurrence, when a taxi rushed on to her. The driver of the car was arrested and placed under bond.

Miss Akers has many friends in Jacksonville who will regret to learn of her misfortune and hope for her speedy recovery. She was for a number of years a teacher in the public schools of this city and is a graduate of the Illinois Woman's College here.

Dr. Clampt, in commenting on the accident last night, stated that the same day Miss Akers was struck there were four similar accidents in different parts of the city, one of them being fatal. While the general strike was in force there was no street car service in Kansas City and the taxi cabs of the city formed practically the only means of transportation. While the authorities were kept busy keeping order among the strikers the taxi drivers disregarded all speed and safety laws in an effort to make time with the result that many accidents occurred.

Mrs. W. M. Lettwith of St. Louis is visiting her cousin, Mrs. F. M. Coard on Diamond court. She is especially called here by the illness of Mr. Coard.

EXPERTS DISCUSSED POULTRY RAISING

Interesting Addresses On Poultry Raising Made at Court House By G. B. Kendall and D. T. Heimlich—Many Interesting Figures Offered Showing Value of Poultry of the Country.

The humble hen had her innings at the court house last evening and while the audience was not as large as it should have been still it made up largely in quality what it lacked in quantity.

D. T. Heimlich presided and called on county adviser G. B. Kendall, and first of the past and Mr. Heimlich said a short outline is given. This country has a great part to do in the present war. Food is as important as cannon. Not only must the county do its part but our town lots must all do what is needed of them. We should cultivate every possible foot of ground and if we make mistakes we can correct them and gain health and strength making gardens, raising foods and in every possible way do our utmost in the cause.

The poultry industry is a business people; the floating population and the pupils of the high schools must all do what is needed of them on the farm and I hope it will be the last resort when we call out the women to work in the fields. But tonight I plead the cause of the humble hen. The back yard can be great things in 1918. The hen can be able to send more red meat abroad than we should have. Hens that cannot get over a four foot fence. Some object to being awakened by the noise of a hen, but it is necessary unless you want to raise chickens yourself.

Missouri has an organization of 20,000 members and is accomplishing great things in raising poultry. In our country 1,527,000 farms on which no hens were raised. In 1910 the poultry crop in Illinois was $2,000,000. There were 21,500,000 fowls. Think what it would mean if we could add an egg a year to the production of each hen.

A pullet should begin to lay when 200 days old. Early hatched chickens are best for layers. The south has killed far too many fowls owing to the high price of feed. In this country the price of feed is high. The price of the U. S. was $389,483,000. It was 83 per cent of the cattle crop and the hog crop was but 67 per cent of it.

If we compare prices of feed and hen crop today it is now much more profitable to raise poultry than it was ten years ago. A man could 25 layers from $2 hens and had more eggs than he had before. In this country we select roosters wisely for breeding and an expert can easily select the hens.

Hens should have some exercise. Rough and wrinkled eggs mean too much sitting in winter. It is nothing better than spoiled eggs for chickens. Always seek a wisely balanced ration.

There are plenty of free pamphlets to be had from Mr. Weber, Mr. Kendall and Mr. Heimlich. They are of great value if you want to make money raising fowls.

S. V. Nichols said Jacksonville should be proud of such a man as Mr. Heimlich who had even a national reputation as judge of poultry and all that pertains to its profitable production. Too often a man is not appreciated in his own home.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY MET
The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church held a regular meeting Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Blunt on South Prairie street. There was a very large attendance of the membership. The devotional exercises were in charge of Mrs. O. N. Barr, who read the 34th Psalm. Afterward Mrs. Blunt offered a prayer and then came a brief business session.

The program of the afternoon was presented by Mrs. L. B. Turner, who gave a resume of a chapter of "Landmarks of Liberty." The members were pleased to have with them Mrs. Hoffman and Mrs. Lewis of the Old People's Home. During the afternoon Mrs. Hoffman sang two songs, "The World for Jesus" and "The Heavenly Father Knows." The program closed with the singing of America and prayer by Mrs. L. B. Turner. Afterward came a delightful social hour with refreshments.

LIKE BOLT FROM HEAVEN'S BLUE

A happy discovery of Cincinnati chemist interests women here

Your high heels have put corns on your feet and calluses on your feet, but why care now? A genius in Cincinnati discovered a magic ether compound and named it Freezone. A quarter ounce of this Freezone can now be had at any drug store for a few cents. Apply a few drops on your tender, aching corn or callous. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callous so shriveled and loose that you can lift it off with your fingers.

Just think! You get rid of a hard corn, soft corn or a corn between the toes, as well as hardened callouses for a few cents and without suffering one particle, without the slightest irritation of the surrounding skin. Just a touch of this marvelous Freezone on a sore, troublesome corn gives instant relief.—Adv.

I guarantee my Ointment, says Peterson. Stops itching instantly. "If you are responsible for the health of your family," says Peterson, "I want you to get a large 30-cent box of Peterson's Ointment today." "Remember, I stand back of every box. Every druggist guarantees to refund the purchase price if Peterson's Ointment doesn't do all I claim." "I guarantee it for eczema, old sores, running sores, salt rheum, itches, sore nipples, broken breasts, itching skin, pimples, blackheads, skin diseases, head itching and itching of the face as well as for burns, scalds, cuts, bruises and sunburn." "I had a running sore on my leg for 11 years, was in three different hospitals. Amputation was advised. Skin grafting was tried. I was cured by using Peterson's Ointment."—Mrs. P. E. ## CAPT. MELTON IS VISITOR IN IDAHO

Jacksonville Man Writes About Surroundings in West Where He is Guest on Son's Ranch.

Capt. J. W. Melton has for several weeks past been visiting with his son and wife on the Melton ranch near St. Maries, Idaho, on the St. Jo river. This stream rises in the Bitterroot mountains and flows into a lake which becomes the source of the Spokane river and finds its way thru Spokane city to the coast.

In a recent letter to Jacksonville friends Capt. Melton says it has been very rainy in that locality the past months and many of the ranchers in the vicinity of Coeur de Lene mountains and St. Jo river ravines were compelled to move their stock to the foothills until the floods subsided. A number of families were also compelled to leave their houses. However, there is some compensation for the floods further enrich the bottom lands and the soil is very productive. For over a month the river has been back in its banks and it is the great hope of the residents that the usual June floods will not prevent the ranchers from cultivating their lands.

St. Jo river in the vicinity of St. Maries is about 300 feet wide and 50 feet deep and two steamboats make daily trips between Coeur de Lene, the city at the head of the lake, and St. Maries. The Chicago Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad runs two trains to St. Maries daily and one of the stations is just opposite the Melton ranch. As the steamboats ply the river regularly it is easy to understand that life on this ranch has no isolation and Mr. Melton and his family are greatly pleased with their life and surroundings.

OFFICIALS BOLDLY SEIZE BOOZE STOCKS

ATE GIVES AID IN MAKING RAIDS ON ALLEGED BOOT- LEGGERS.

Assistant Attorney General Here to Direct Clean-up Work—All Forces United in Thursday's Sensational Confiscations—The County Jail Looks Like Combined Brewery and Distillery as Result—Permanent Court Injunctions Will be Asked Declaring Places Raided are Nuisances.

There is enough booze stored in the Morgan county jail to stock first class saloon, and this in territory. Think of it! This statement, however, is not so surprising when it is understood that his collection of beer and whiskey represents the total stocks carried by various alleged bootleggers.

Thursday, C. W. Middlekauff, assistant attorney general, acting in the name of Attorney General Brandage of the state of Illinois, co-operated with county and city officials in rounding up bootleggers and seizing the stocks. It was indeed a delightful picture for sympathizers with the dry cause and with all who believe in law enforcement, to see the authority of the state, county and city presenting a united front against liquor sellers.

The Liquor Inventory.

As a result of this sensational roundup Mr. and Mrs. Walter Haxton, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Lamb and Phil Grant were arrested and warrants were issued for Charles and "Sailor" Konrad. The amount of booze confiscated includes two barrels of beer, a number of bottles of whiskey taken from the Haxton place; a similar quantity found at the Lamb home; 100 gallons of whiskey taken from the cellar at the residence of Louis Freitag, said to belong to Haxton; several bottles of beer and whiskey confiscated from Phil Grant's place; six barrels of beer at the old Jefferson House, operated by Konrad brothers.

Those arrested appeared in Squire Dyer's court where they gave bond for their future appearance. A month ago Mr. Middlekauff, who has charge of this class of work for the attorney general's office, came to Jacksonville to learn preliminary facts. Subsequently investigators for the attorney general's office visited this city and in their occasional trips have secured evidence accounted as sufficient. Mr. Middlekauff stated last night that evidence has been secured against at least fifteen persons in Jacksonville accused of selling liquor illegally, but for the present the cases will be pushed against only four or five. Investigators have come one at a time and on other occasions three at a time for this investigation work, which has been carried on quietly and no doubt in an effective way because of the experience that these men have had in this class of work.

Final Preparations.

Nothing has been done hurriedly, Mr. Middlekauff has directed the whole campaign as he saw fit. He came to Jacksonville Wednesday night to make ready for Thursday's raid and about 11 o'clock Thursday morning notified all the officials concerned to meet at a given point and then to proceed with the raiding party. This notice was given less than an hour before the raid occurred. The combined forces made their first assault upon Fortress Haxton and altho the walls did not fall the charge was entirely successful and the officers had not the slightest difficulty in seizing liquors counted as evidence tending to incriminate Haxton and his wife. Haxton's abode and place of business is in an extension of Reid street just north of the Jacksonville creamery.

At the noon hour he had the unexpected pleasure of receiving Mr. Middlekauff, Sheriff Graft, Deputy Sheriffs Stice and Wannamaker, the turnkey of the county jail, J. E. Martin, commissioner of the police department; Officers Perry White, Frank Kiloran, John McGinnis; State's Attorney Carl E. Robinson; Mayor H. J. Rodgers and City Attorney John J. Reeve. Mr. Robinson has been very ill for several weeks past and is just beginning to recover. Yesterday was the first day out of the house but he was able to ride in Mayor Rodgers' car and view the assault from that position. After the Haxton and Lamb arrests all the liquors found in their premises were taken in a transfer wagon to the county jail.

A Well Stocked Cellar.

Following his custom in other such cases, Haxton said that he would secure Louis Freitag to go his bond and was taken to the Freitag home on Oak street. When it was found that Mr. Freitag was out at his farm in the Arcadia neighborhood Haxton decided to drive out after him.

Mr. Middlekauff meanwhile secured information that Haxton keeps his extra supply of liquors at the Freitag home and he thereupon authorized the extension of the raid to that property. Officers were immediately given access to the basement where they found more than 100 gallons of whiskey in various packages, all consigned to Walter Haxton. The addresses indicate that the liquor had been shipped to Haxton at Arnold station and then had been hauled into the city by wagon or automobile. All this supply of wet goods was immediately conveyed to the county jail.

When the officers raided the Phil Grant place on East North street the proprietor was not present but several bottles of whiskey were found and a much larger number of empty bottles. When the officers turned their attention to the old Jefferson hotel property where Konrad brothers hold forth, they found no human being present but proceeded to seize the barrels of beer which were found in the premises.

Procedure Explained.

Asked about the cases and procedure Mr. Middlekauff said "The trouble with the situation here in Jacksonville is that the authorities have not been working together. My observation of the city and county officials is that they individually desire to see the law enforced but they have not known just how to get at the matter and have tried to work too much independently. There has not been the necessary teamwork in today's raid we have had the state, county and the city rushing along in perfect harmony and I might add, with the aid also of certain information secured from the federal authorities. So the forces for law and order have taken a hand in this affair today. I am not claiming that these persons are convicted and that we are entitled to a lot of credit, but I am only talking about what has been done thus far and the expectation of what we will proceed to do. The cases will be handled as they are in other places—that is, criminal procedure will be pushed against all these defendants. But we will have also the further state action which as been used in a number of similar instances. A bill in chancery for an injunction to abate a nuisance will be asked for in the circuit court against each of these defendants. Such an injunction if issued, will forbid the person to have liquor of any kind about the premises, and will place other restrictions about them which will guarantee their observance of the law unless by some means the court dissolves the injunction."

Injunctions Effective Elsewhere. These documents which we will file in these cases are lengthy and will recite facts and quote statutes to the extent of twenty or more typewritten pages. In recent months I have drawn forty five documents of this kind and all I can say now is that they have been very effective for the purposes intended. When a bill is filed it will be in the name of Edward J. Brundage, attorney general, and Carl E. Robinson, state's attorney, against the defendant who is charged, with maintaining the nuisance. In this connection it is interesting to know that Mr. Middlekauff spent seven months representing the attorney general's office in the East St. Louis riot cases and he has conducted the saloon cleanup campaigns in several Madison county cities, in Edwardsville, Belleville and a number of other cities.

These cases, as indicated, are taken directly to the circuit court and the procedure is one which has thus far had the support of the courts. As Mr. Middlekauff says, the cases are not closed and these persons charged with bootlegging have not been convicted, but certainly Thursday's roundup was the biggest anti-bootlegging movement that has ever been staged in Jacksonville. And it was indeed not a sunny day for those who are accused of illegal liquor selling.

BRILLIANT RECITAL AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Miss Margaret A. Ring and Carl F. Jensen Give Recital of Compositions For Two Pianos—Audience an Appreciative One.

A very interesting recital was the one of compositions for two pianos given by Miss Margaret A. Ring and Mr. Carl F. Jensen in Music Hall at Illinois Woman's College yesterday evening. In spite of the strong attraction at the Opera House a good sized audience gave close attention to the work of the artists and repaid them with liberal applause.

The program was an unusual one in structure and in content. With the exception of the Bocherini "Minuet" it was made up of compositions of modern French men. They delight in unusual color effects, peculiar harmonic and melodic combinations and an atmosphere of mystery and idealism that is charming in the extreme. Special mention should be made of the "Piece in B Minor" by Ropartz as the outstanding piece of the program both in the musical content of the piece itself and the finish and enthusiasm with which it was performed by the artists. Perhaps next to it in interest came the suite "Mother Goose" by Ravel brilliantly played and charming in its picture of the fairy tales of our childhood.

Miss Ring and Mr. Jensen play well together. The ensemble was carefully worked out, the balance of tone between the two pianos carefully considered. While the technical difficulties of the compositions seem of no account.

The program will be repeated in the near future in the chapel of the Illinois State School for the Blind.

MRS. KING BECOMES RED CROSS SECRETARY

At the recent meeting of directors of the Red Cross society the resignation of Mrs. Hester Capps as secretary was received. Sometime since Mrs. Capps because of other work earnestly requested that she be relieved of her duties and the board accepted the resignation after expressing appreciation of her devotion and work. The board was fortunate in securing Mrs. Lillian King to take the position and the new secretary has already entered upon the numerous duties which the position carries with it.

As indicated, the resignation of Mrs. Capps was filed with the directors several weeks since and at that time the record was made to indicate how greatly the directors have appreciated her untiring work. It was due in large measure to Mrs. Capps' activity and tact that the work was so well started and the Red Cross organization fully appreciates her faithfulness and ability shown in the service.

COUNTY AGENT HAS MANY LINES OF WORK

Soil Augur is Ready for Work—Farm Hands Waiting for Jobs—The Control of Animal Disease.

Every effort is being made to see that every farmer in Morgan County has his supply of seed corn by April 20. Some who thought they had plenty of good seed corn now find that they must depend upon the seed corn administration to get it for them. The County Agent's office has been supplied with order blanks by the state seed corn administration and any farmer in the county is at liberty to call there and order seed corn. This said corn is sent C. O. D. to the farmer's nearest shipping point. The price depends upon the way the State College of Agriculture finds it germinates.

A number of farmers have been supplied with help thru the County Agent's office. At present he has more men waiting jobs than he has places for. The most of these young men who have had some farm experience. Some of these are willing to work for $30.00 per month.

The Treasury Department has asked County Agents to co-operate with the local committee in furthering the sale of Liberty Loan bonds. Every County Agent has been asked as soon as he receives his notification to call up the office of the local committee and place himself at the service of the committee. A number of the ministers of the city have notified the office of their willingness to assist in Community Meetings planned for various places in the county in the near future.

The office has been equipped with a soil auger like that used in the soil survey. Every County Agent carries his auger with him when visiting farms. In many cases before prescribing soil treatment the soil is sampled at various places over the farm. In testing for acidity or alkalinity litmus paper is used. In testing for limestone a solution of hydrochloric acid is used.

The United States Department of Agriculture and the State Department of Agriculture are planning a campaign to control any animal disease that may break out in the corn belt. Twenty trained veterinarians will be stationed at convenient places in this region for the purpose of controlling any dangerous diseases that break out. Morgan County and some other county will form a district with one of these men in charge of it. These veterinarians, however, it is expected that the veterinarians and state officials and local veterinarians will co-operate in this cause. The services of these department officials will be available without charge for the purpose of giving demonstrations for the purpose of disinfecting the premises after a contagious disease has broken out. While they are not expected to do the vaccinating the local veterinarians do, yet if a local veterinarian cannot be secured they would do anything that they could in the line of professional work to stop the progress of a contagious disease even if it came to a matter of vaccinating herds. It is hoped that every farmer in the corn belt will co-operate with these men in reporting diseases and in controlling the same.

THE CAUSE OF MISSIONS

The Christian Women's Board of Missions had a county delegate meeting yesterday at the Christian church and it was truly a time when the great command of the Master was discussed in a manner which showed that it was as nearly as possible forgotten. The city organization was host to the delegates from the county and the gathering was truly fraternal.

Miss Pearl Jewsbury, county secretary, was in charge and conducted the meeting in a very interesting manner. The following was the program:

Song, Oh Zion Hasten.
Bible reading by Mrs. Whorton.
The Work of Development of Community Missions—Miss Peak district secretary, C. W. B. M.
Address, Information, Inspiration, Realization—Mrs. Campbell.
Reading, Miss Eleanor Thompson.
Address, Men and Millions—Rev. Mr. Cronkrite, pastor Lynnville Christian church.

Experiences While Visiting Camp Logan—Rev. M. L. Pontius.
Reports of county secretaries.
At noon a fine luncheon was supplied by the local society and was very much enjoyed by the visitors. All the speakers were earnest in their advocacy of the cause and felt that while tremendous responsibilities rest on us owing to the war we cannot forget or lessen the work of our brave defenders of the faith on foreign soil.

PATRIOTIC WINDOWS FOR STAMP CAMPAIGN

Frank H. Plouer Arranges for Trimming of Business Homes Windows in Furtherance of Thrift Stamp Campaign—One Hundred Per Cent List Growing

Mr. Frank H. Plouer, chairman of Agencies for the Morgan County War Savings Committee has completed arrangements for a series of patriotic window displays featuring War Savings Stamps and Thrift Stamps. In the show windows of many of the prominent stores in the city.

Mr. Plouer has so planned the displays that at least six or eight windows in the various blocks will be decorated each week for the next three months.

While no prizes are offered for the best displays, it is quite certain that a friendly rivalry will develop among the many artistic window trimmers of the city, who will vie with each other in arranging specially handsome displays in order that the windows may be dressed in a fashion befitting the cause of "Uncle Sam."

The stores which will head the list and set the pace for the first week are as follows: Lukeman Brothers, Hopper & Sons, Brady Brothers, Armstrong's Drug Store on East State street, A. R. Taylor, S. S. Kresge & Co., Floreth Dry Goods Co., Myers Brothers and the C. C. Phelps Dry Goods company.

The variety of the stores selected gives opportunity for many varied displays featuring these popular stamps, and the public is invited to inspect the displays in each of the above mentioned business houses during the coming week.

100 Per Cent List Growing.

Among the latest of the business houses to have every member employed on the staff of clerks a War Saver, is the S. S. Kresge & Co. 5 and 10 cent Store, who voluntarily formed a War Savings Society with a hundred per cent membership, and thus every employee in this establishment is doing his "best" to help out the coming of Victory with his money.

IMMIGRATION TO U. S. NOT STOPPED BY WAR

Altho Tide Has Been Gradually
Declining Since Conflict Began
—Immigration Stations Turned Over to Other Lines of War Work.

Washington, April 4.—While war has stemmed the tide of immigration, it has not entirely stopped it. And, as the flow of immigrants from Europe has been cut down to comparatively nothing, it has increased at the Canadian, Mexican and Pacific stations.

For a decade before the war, the annual influx approximated a million a year. From July to December last year the number fell to 80,222. Moreover, the decreasing streams of newcomers is being offset to a remarkable degree by the exodus from America of those desiring to return to their native lands. In fact, the departures outnumbered the admissions in November and December.

A great many of those leaving the country since the beginning of the war have been Allied reservists who have gone back to answer the call to the colors.

While war conditions have curtailed the usual duties of the immigration service, a new field has been opened up which requires even more intensive application and effort. Beginning with the seizure of the German ships, the service has been called upon to assist other agencies of the government in many important lines of work. Especially have the inspectors been active in prohibiting the entrance or departure of enemy aliens, in the detection of spies, the surveillance and apprehension of suspects and in capturing draft law evaders.

A great part of the facilities of the immigration stations, especially along the Atlantic coast, have been turned over to other lines of war work. The great receiving depot at Ellis Island now is devoting only 25 or 30 per cent of its space to handling immigration, and somewhat similar conditions exist at other Atlantic ports.

As ever, the service is employed in preventing surreptitious entry into the country of objectionable aliens, chiefly Chinese coolies. Altho the traffic has been cut down materially by vigilance, the great financial inducements offered those who successfully run the blockade prevent a complete curtailment of the practice.

The number of stowaways on ships was twice as many in the last half of 1917 as in the preceding twelve months, 93 altogether having been detected and deported. Included in the number were several German soldiers who deserted, fled to neutral countries, then sought to find a safe haven by hiding on America bound vessels.

Altho the tide of immigration dropped from a million to 300,000 the first year of the war and has since steadily been on the decline, there is every prospect that the flow will not resume its pre-war proportions for a decade or more after the treaty of peace.

America, practically since its discovery, has been the land of promise for the ambitious, the adventuresome, or the oppressed people of other lands. Beginning with the Argonauts of the early seventeenth century who established colonies along the Atlantic seaboard, the tide steadily had increased until the first part of the present century saw millions eagerly setting their faces towards the new world.

They came principally in the steerage of the great ocean liners, ever with determination to win fortune and enjoy liberty. The immigrants still come from Europe, but in small scattered groups, mostly of women or children joining relatives here. The ravages of war have made it an absolute necessity for the belligerents to retain within their own borders all useful man power—not alone for active fighting or imperative non-combatant tasks behind the lines, but for the great work of rehabilitation that must start when hostilities cease.

Even the neutrals—Norway, Sweden, Denmark and Holland—are discouraging emigration, recognizing that the loss of even small portions of their population may prove a material after-war economic loss.

With the great stream of immigration curtailed for a while, the nation even in the rush of war, will find additional time to break up, educate and Americanize the polygot groups in the larger cities. There are many of these elements which it is asserted, have not yet begun to be assimilated in American national life. Their language, customs and ideals remain practically unchanged in their new surroundings.

Americanization of an emigrant of this class offers great problems and greater rewards for the social worker.

WOMEN OF MORGAN COUNTY YOUR COUNTRY APPEALS

The Women of France are ploughing in the fields that the men of their army may be fed. Will not the women of America lend money to their country that their own fighting men may be provided for?

The Women of England from the highest to the humblest, are toiling in the larger cities, making guns and shells for their soldiers. Will not the women of America do that far easier thing of merely lending the money to buy the guns for equipping the American men?

The safety for which these women of other lands are striving was won for American women long ago by the swords of American men. To preserve this safety for you and your children, American men are now marching to battle even as their forefathers marched. Will American women stand shoulder to shoulder with them? They are offering their lives as a gift. Will you offer your dollars as a loan?

To save your home from the flames destroying France, your babies from the sword that murdered infants in Poland, your daughters from the hordes that ravished Belgian women even as they fled thru the streets, American men are making supreme sacrifice. What sacrifice will you make to help equip these defenders of your country? What will you give up that you may help finance the struggle to save American freedom?

Not a gift but a loan is asked of you. Not a free loan, but a loan at interest. Will you withhold your money while men offer their blood? Buy a Liberty Bond for your country's sake. Put it in your own name. Buy one for the daughter it may save. Buy one for the boy too small to fight.

The Loan Explained.
When you buy a Liberty Bond you are not giving away your money. You are merely lending it to the United States Government. As long as it uses your money the Government will pay you interest. The loan itself will be returned in the specified number of years. If you want it back sooner you can get it by selling your Bond. Safe places for savings are being sought in this hour of financial uncertainty. No vault in the world is as safe as Uncle Sam's promise to pay his debt to you.

Put your savings into bonds and bonds may save your savings for you.
Mrs. Benjamin Lurton,
Chairman Woman's Liberty
Loan Organization of Morgan County.

FORTY MASONS VISITED CITY YESTERDAY

Party on Way to Quincy Spent
Few Hours Here—Guests of Local Masons.

Bloomington representatives of the Masonic lodge to the number of forty paid the city a visit yesterday, arriving over the C. & A. at 9:45 a. m. The men were on their way to visit the Quincy consistory and departed on the Wash 1:10 train for that city. The delegation was met at the station by ten Jacksonville Masons, J. S. Hackett, H. J. Johnson, Dr. Philip Griggs, R. T. Cassell, Rev. W. E. Spoonst, Len Magill, E. M. Henderson, Fletcher Hopper, J. E. Phillips and F. H. Bode, and made an auto tour of the city. They first visited Jacksonville State hospital, where they received a cordial welcome from Dr. E. L. Hill and the other physicians on the staff. Returning to the city they had dinner at the Dunlap hotel.

Delmar D. Darrah, secretary of the Bloomington consistory and general recorder of the commandery, was among those who were here.

SOME ONE YOU KNOW HAS IT

A number of people in Morgan County are now having Delco-Light installed at their farms or country homes.

Users of Delco-Light are glad to show it to their friends and neighbors.

If you would like to see a farm lighted with Delco-Light we can probably tell you of some one not far from your place who is enjoying this modern convenience of country life.

Tell us where you live and we will see that you have an opportunity to see Delco-Light in operation.

THAT CHANGE IN WOMAN'S LIFE

Mrs. Godden Tells How It
May be Passed in Safety and Comfort

Fremont, O.—"I was passing through the critical period of life being forty-five years of age and had all the symptoms incident to that change—heat flashes, nervousness, irritability in a general run-down condition, so it was hard for me to do my own work. I tried to be patient, but I was in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disappeared."—Mrs. M. Godden, 925 Napoleon street, Fremont, Ohio.

Such annoying symptoms as heat flashes, nervousness, headache, irritability and "the blues" may be speedily overcome and the system restored to normal conditions by this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If any complications present themselves write the Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for suggestions how to overcome them. The result of forty years experience is at your service and your letter held in strict confidence.

TOTAL INSURANCE ON HIGH SCHOOL

Appraisers Fixed Value of the Building at $95,000—Adjusters
Allowed Entire Amount of Policies.

The insurance loss on the Jacksonville high school building and equipment will be settled in full. The appraisers, John W. Wake of this city and M. R. McCormick of St. Louis, agreed that the building was worth $95,000 and it was shown that the loss was complete. By the agreement it would have been possible for these two men to call in a third but it was not necessary to use this "umpire" as the two had no difficulty in reaching an agreement.

The adjusters for all the insurance companies interested were Joel W. Hubble of this city and H. B. Fargo of St. Louis. They agreed on behalf of the companies to pay the entire face value of the policies. The board of education will therefore receive a total sum of $91,600 insurance. Of this sum $13,000 is carried on equipment and $78,600 on the building. It will be remembered that since the present board of education went into office that the system of insurance was changed to the 80 per cent plan and this accounts for the fact that the board had such a large amount of insurance in force on the building and the equipment.

It is fortunate indeed, that this sum was carried and that such a large amount of money will be available for the building and equipping of a new high school plant, no matter what particular plan is determined upon by the board of education and the voters.

SCHOOL GAVE PROGRAM.

Miss Lillian Walker teacher at Elm Grove school closed her school Tuesday. A basket dinner was served and a short program was given. Miss Walker returned to her home at Athens.

L. C. LASHMET NOW MEMBER OF FIRM.

Former Jacksonville Man Member

Invest In United States Government War Saving Stamps

THOSE who save, gain. Those who spend, pay the interest.

Thrift never bought such golden returns as now. The Saver profits—the Spender pays the taxes.

United States Government War Savings Stamps are government bonds in denominations of $5.00. They yield 4% interest, compounded quarterly.

This interest is paid by taxes. Taxes are levied on the things you buy—most heavily on the luxuries. So the spender pays the interest on the money the saver banks with Uncle Sam.

Save in clothes as well as food

Maybe you've said to your friends, "This 'save on wheat' campaign is a great thing; it's teaching people that other grains—corn, barley and rye—are just as palatable as wheat and some are more nutritious."

A man who has always had his clothes tailor made said that to us. We agreed and then asked why he didn't apply that to clothes and save there. You can get in Hart Schaffner & Marx ready made clothes the same quality and the same tailoring that the highest priced tailors give you—and for $15 to $35 less. You get style that can't be surpassed.

ELECTION HELD IN WHITE HALL TOWNSHIP

F. E. Baker elected Commissioner Under New Law—Story of Death of Famous Percheron Stallion, Carnot, Not True—Preparations Being Made To Observe Decoration Day On a Large Scale—Other White Hall News.

White Hall, April 3.—The only contest at the township election Tuesday was the three-cornered race for highway commissioner under the new single highway commissioner system, in which F. E. Baker was elected by a plurality of 31 votes, defeating John W. Wood, who has been a commissioner for several years, and L. E. Culbertson, a recognized road authority. Baker's selection, therefore, is over two recognized highway men, but Baker states that he will do his utmost to make a success of the new single highway commissioner plan, and he has the ability and knowledge and the interest in highway affairs to do so. Baker is an enterprising young farmer and stock man, having a wide reputation as a livestock judge and in late years has turned his attention to highway affairs in a way that gives confidence in his declaration that the roads of White Hall township will be given the very best attention possible under his leadership. Hiram W. Green was re-elected as town clerk, and Rev. R. P. Ewert, Mrs. W. S. Cora and R. G. Swenson are trustees of the township library.

FIRE LOSS AT GREGORY FARM. General press reports as to the fire at Gregory Farm Monday morning have become confusing, because of the local reporter of the Associated Press not being in a position to give out the facts for general publication. The fire was started by a bolt of lightning which struck the main horse barn shortly after 1 o'clock, consuming the barn and thirteen head of thoroughbred Percheron horses. The loss is liberally covered by insurance. The value of the barn is placed at $1000. The horses included the famous show herd of Gregory Farm that have been showing at state fairs in western and southern states during the past two years with great honors. The loss, while keenly felt in Percheron circles, is only temporary, as it is only a matter of time until other Gregory Farm animals will be put in show condition. The fire occurred, Carvitor, a son of the Grand Champion Carnot, was the only member of the show herd that was rescued from the burning barn, and on Tuesday evening word came from Gregory Farm that Carvitor was safe. He won first honors at the International Live Stock Exposition last fall and again won first honor at the Wichita show this winter. His death will be the fourteenth Percheron to be lost in the fire. Carnot, the sire of Percheron stallions, the foundation of Gregory Farm Percherons, is quartered in a barn separate from the main one that was destroyed, and there are no grounds for the report that he was consumed by the flames.

MEMORIAL FOR GENERAL HAMILTON

The trustees of the township library are working on some sort of memorial for General H. D. Hamilton of New York City, who was one of the leading spirits in making possible this thriving local institution and a liberator of the township. General Hamilton explains his interest in the original White Hall library, which he founded, as being that he was referred to as the best read man in the New York Press Club, he felt so grateful for the compliment that he began to inquire about the old home library with the result that out of his interest developed the new library that is supported by township appropriation as a result of the action of the voters two years ago. Hamilton is a handsome majority in the proposition.

MARCH WEATHER SUMMARY

A summary of weather conditions during March has been prepared by R. E. Hance, cooperative observer of the weather bureau, and it shows only 6.81 inch of rain during the month, the greatest in 24 hours being 0.36 inch on the 13th and the same amount again on the 22nd. There were six days with precipitation of 0.01 inch or more precipitation, nineteen clear days, six partly cloudy and six cloudy. Thunderstorms occurred on the 11th, 13th, 22nd and 23rd. The highest temperature was 98 degrees on the 24th and the lowest 18 degrees on the 7th, the average for the month being 49.4 degrees, with a mean maximum of 66.3 and a mean minimum of 32.5. Only three auroras have been recorded since the local station was established in 1915, and the one visible between 7 and 10 o'clock on the evening of the 7th is the most brilliant and extensive ever seen here. There was some damage by the heavy ice that prevailed during the greater part of the day on the 9th.

By the close of the month there began to be a serious absence of rain-fall but showers have since fallen with beneficial results to which all sorts of vegetation has responded. The average of corn this year will be at least 10 per cent greater than last year. There are practically no peaches but apples and cherries promise fair. Rye looks fine. Home gardening is being carried on on a larger scale than ever before. Winter wheat now looks to be all right.

AN EXPLOSION

Just as the heavy boom and barrage fire is the forerunner of an attack in force, so there is a general feeling of apprehension, dullness, the "blues," giving notice of a coming uric-acid attack—a fear of something going to happen—headache, vertigo, high-colored, over-acid urine—and something does happen! Nature is simply giving warning that there's going to be an uric-acid "explosion." This uric acid poison accumulates within the body and suddenly is driven in an attack on the surrounding tissue structures, resulting in an acute attack of gout, neuralgia, cramps, rheumatism, or out of the body by way of kidneys and bowels, (urine becoming cloudy with urates). For this reason one should take warning and avoid the severity of the attack by taking a simple, safe and harmless remedy. Drink plenty of hot water between meals and take "Anuric," double strength after meals. "Anuric" tablets stimulate the proper working of the eliminative organs and insure the removal of the waste products from the body; thus the severe attack is avoided, or in a few days the severe pains of lumbago, rheumatism, neuralgia disappear and one is "up-top" again. This "Anuric" was the discovery of Dr. Pierce and his able staff at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute in Buffalo, N. Y., where you can obtain trial package by sending for postcard and wrapping.

Quincy, Ill.—"I am glad to tell what Dr. Pierce's Anuric has done for me; it is a fine remedy. I have been a great sufferer with my back and hip for years, but Anuric did wonders for me. I have taken two bottles of the tablets and tell everyone that a good medicine it is."—Mrs. Stella Steadman, 641 Madison Street.

JUNIOR RED CROSS ORGANIZED AT BLUFFS

Promoted By R. N. Newenham, Superintendent of Schools—School Pupils Are Selling Thrift Stamps.

Bluffs, April 4.—The Junior Red Cross is now thoroughly organized under the leadership of Supt. R. L. Newenham, thirty-four of the pupils having enrolled besides a number of children under school age. They will make a house-to-house canvass Saturday April 6th to gather magazines and papers to be sold for the benefit of the Juniors. The date was set for March 29 and 30, but was postponed on account of the funeral Friday. The local chapter

USE "CASCARETS" FOR LIVER AND BOWELS WHEN CONSTIPATED

When Bilious, Headachy, Sick, for Sour Stomach, Bad Breath, Bad Colds

Get a 10 cent box. Take a Cascaret tonight to cleanse your liver, stomach and bowels, and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women who have headache, coated tongue, a bad cold, are bilious, nervous, upset, bothered with a sick, gassy disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out. Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil?

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels. Remember, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. A 10 cent box from your druggist means healthy bowel action, a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.—Adv.

of the Red Cross is engaged in making surgical dressings. The work is progressing nicely and much enthusiasm is manifested.

The pupils of the school, under the direction of the Supt. R. L. Newenham are devoting spare time to the sale of Thrift Stamps. The sale of stamps is below the quota for Scott County and he is doing his bit for this precinct. He is also training the Boy Scouts and with school duties, is a very busy person at the present time.

Miss Anna Bosse of Jacksonville is the guest of her brother, Otto Bosse and family.

Mrs. Mark Hale left for an extended visit to Louisville, Ky., to be near her husband who is stationed at Camp Taylor.

Mrs. William Hornum and daughter, Miss Beatrice, spent Sunday with relatives in town. Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Paton and family are sojourning in the State of Texas.

Mrs. A. E. Laurence has returned from Payson where she has been the guest of relatives. While there her little son, Loren, aged ten years, had the misfortune to fall from a fence while playing and broke his left arm near the elbow.

Remember Trinity benefit. Illinois College gym. tonight.

QUICK WORK ABOARD SHIP.

Harry Hoelscher of Cartersville, Mo., nephew of W. F. Hoelscher of the Tomlinson clothing house, is at the Great Lakes training station in the service. He has recently been enjoying a fifteen days furlough which he chose instead of the ninety days he could have taken to work on the farm but he would have been sent back to the beginners' class again and he chose to stay in and get across at the Kaiser all the sooner. He said they were out one night on their training ship when darkness was dense and suddenly without warning came the order to launch the boats and leave the ship. They had sixty extra boats aboard and the whole thing was done and the men aboard the boats in eight minutes and no boats dropped. The captain pronounced it a remarkable feat as generally in such confusion and haste, some boats are permitted to fall in the launching process.

Science Solves the Butter Problem with Butter Made from the White Meat of Cocoanuts

Just when the price of butter threatens to make it an unattainable luxury, science perfects TROCO, the new vegetable butter made from the white meat of the coconut.

It tastes exactly like the finest creamery butter and is even more wholesome and pure.

It is churned with fresh Pasteurized milk to give true butter flavor.

Because of old laws, made before this discovery, we are compelled to label this nut-made butter as oleomargarine.

But it contains no oleo oils—no hog or beef fat, nor any preservatives.

TROCO is simply vegetable fats, churned with milk for the butter taste.

Yet this appetizing combination costs no more than does the best grades of oleomargarine.

TROCO

Can't Be Told From Butter

TROCO has all the good qualities of fine creamery butter. The only difference you will notice is the cost.

It is as nutritious as cream butter, and as easily digested. It possesses the fuel value needed for energy.

TROCO when served has butter's golden color, because we supply the same vegetable coloring used by all butter makers.

Served on your table, without explanation, no one can tell the difference.

Goes Farther In Cooking

TROCO, used in cooking, gives the same results as butter, except that it goes farther. Cooks should remember this and reduce the amount.

TROCO NUT BUTTER CO.,

220 East Superior Street, Chicago, Illinois

JENKINSON-BODE CO., Distributors

Jacksonville, Illinois

NOTICE: Under the law, all butter substitutes must be branded Oleomargarine. That law was passed before TROCO was invented. So the TROCO package is branded "Oleomargarine" though there is no oleo in it. All butter substitutes must pay an extra tax if colored. So the color for TROCO comes in a capsule. And if yourself, as you do with Oleo, "Oleo."

STATE WILL TAKE HAND IN HANGING AT COLLINSVILLE

Formal Investigation of Praeger Death Starts Monday

COLLINSVILLE, Ill., April 5.—Formal investigation of the death of Robert Praeger, who last night was hanged following the charges of disloyalty, will not be made until next Monday, when Mayor J. H. Siegel, who is in charge of the investigation, will hold an inquest over the body. At that time, representatives of the state attorney general and the adjutant general will be present, prepared to carry forward any measures deemed necessary to apprehend those who participated in the hanging.

Announcement to this effect came tonight after Governor Lowden, Attorney General Brundage and Senator Overman, chairman of the senate judiciary committee, arrived at Springfield, Ill., and issued statements deploring the act and asking that the guilty parties be prosecuted.

Officials to Co-operate.

Mayor J. H. Siegel, of Collinsville, declared he would start no investigation on his own account, but stood ready to co-operate with state and county officials. In a statement issued tonight, he asserted he had telegraphed today to Senator Overman, chairman of the senate judiciary committee, urging immediate passage of the law imposing severe penalty for disloyalty. It is his opinion, he says, that the violence of last night was the result of a neglect by the federal government to furnish this penalty.

Chief of Police Staten of Collinsville, declared today a number of the members of the mob were known to the authorities but that the local police will attempt to make no arrests because the crime was committed outside the city limits.

A day of investigation by county officials resulted in no arrests and none is anticipated until after the inquest Monday, according to Mayor Siegel. So far as he learned tonight the action of the mob was precipitous and no person has stated concrete instances of disloyalty by Praeger. It is known he registered as an alien at the office of the United States marshal in St. Louis in June 27 last, giving his occupation as baker. He asked for permit to enter all barred zones and seek employment. The permit was granted. It was also discovered that he registered for the army draft on June 5 last and that in April 1917, he caused the arrest of a man on a disloyalty charge. His friends assert he was radical in his views on Socialism at that time when the United States entered the war he declared he was "all for America."

Ian Concealed at Saloon.

The mob idea had its inception, was said tonight, in a saloon in the outskirts of the city where miners from Maryville and Collinsville foregathered. Many of the men were foreigners who understood little English and it is believed the remarks of Praeger were magnified with tragic result.

"Rumors that quantities of powder had been hoarded in a mine by Praeger and that in his home were found numerous incriminating maps also were denied tonight by the authorities.

Praeger was unmarried and so far as is known has no relatives in this country. He was born in Dresden, Germany, and came to the United States in 1905.

Lowden Awaiting Developments.

Springfield, Ill., April 5.—Governor Frank O. Lowden tonight was awaiting developments at Collinsville, Ill., where Robert Praeger, a German born citizen, was lynched by a mob Thursday night. Following a conference this morning with Attorney General Edward J. Brundage and Assistant Adjutant General Richings, the governor wired to the sheriff's office of Madison county warning officials that martial law will be proclaimed if they fail to maintain order.

During the afternoon Assistant Attorney General William E. Routmann and Colonel Claude E. Ryan, representing the attorney general and adjutant general's office respectively, were sent to Collinsville to investigate and to report back to the governor. Later action on his part depends on these reports, according to statements from the executive mansion.

BULLETINS

WATERLOO, Ia., April 5.—George E. Wordhouse, a member of the Great Lakes Training Station with the band which was here this afternoon, received a wire from his wife at Braddock, Pa., notifying him that triplets, two boys and a girl had arrived since his departure.

KEY WEST, Fla., April 5.—Student Aviator Thomas W. Eden of Wilmington, Del., was killed and Student J. J. Mitchell, Jr., was seriously injured in a collision here today of airplanes, which they were piloting. The machines were flying 100 feet from the ground.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—A board of appraisers for the war department to determine compensation for property already taken over or to be taken over later by the government and to assist in the drawing up of war department contracts was appointed today by President Wilson. Lieutenant Colonel John S. Dean and Lieutenant Colonel R. H. Montgomery were named on the board, but it is provided that additional members may be appointed.

AMSTERDAM, April 5.—According to Les Nouvelles de Haastrecht, another long range gun similar to those already bombarding Paris, passed thru Belgium from Essen Monday. The length of the barrel is from 20 to 25 meters and the calibre from 20 to 25 centimeters.

PARIS, April 5.—It is officially announced that the appeal of Bolo Pasha for a new trial was rejected today by the committee of revision sitting at the ministry of justice.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 5.—Ritchie Mitchell, Milwaukee light-weight boxer scored a technical knockout over Clonnie Tait, champion of Canada when in the eighth of a ten round bout he floored the Canadian twice and the referee stopped the proceedings to avoid further punishment to the Canadian.

LONDON, April 5.—The Germans made formidable effort, probably aimed at getting astride of the Amiens-Paris railway says Reuter's correspondent at British headquarters in France. Thanks to the stubborn resistance the only success attained was the driving in of a salient of about 7,000 yards wide to an extreme depth of 2,000 yards.

Among the 14 German divisions believed to have been engaged were some of the best troops, including the First Prussian Guard, commanded by Prince Eitel Friedrich, and two other guard divisions.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., April 5.—C. A. Welch of Monett, Mo., was killed and 62 persons were injured when St. Louis & San Francisco Train No. 716, eastbound, plunged thru a bridge near Hugo, Okla., today, according to a dispatch received at the general offices here tonight. The bridge, twenty feet high and 125 feet long had become weakened from the high waters caused by heavy rain which fell last night.

The injured include J. Sies, Livingston, Ill., head cut and bruised. All the other injured persons live in Oklahoma and Texas.

SAYS CZERNIN STANDS FOR PRUSSIAN IDEALS

LONDON, April 5.—Lord Roberts, chief parliamentary under-secretary of foreign affairs, told the Associated Press today that "whatever doubt about Count Czernin might have existed before his latest declaration there can be no doubts now that he stands for Prussian ideals and Prussian policy."

Lord Robert, taking up what he characterized as Count Czernin's latest peace terms, continued: "Count Czernin claims with the greatest audacity that he and his associates have just made proposals that are moderate and even guided by the principles of self-determination, no annexations and no indemnities. As far as self-determination is concerned in every one of the new states they have set up they have done so without the slightest regard to the wishes of the peoples and no serious attempt was made even to follow racial boundaries or racial antecedents."

BRITISH AIR RAIDS CAUSE MANY DEATHS

Geneva, April 5.—The recent British aerial raids on Cologne caused 248 death, half of whom were soldiers according to the latest reports received at Basel. The soldiers were in a railway train bound for the Picardy front and standing at the Cologne station.

Panic reigned in the city for 12 hours, the streets were deserted and the population hid in cellars. One report says a major was killed.

ENGEL GOES TO SENATORS

Atlanta, Ga., April 5.—The Atlanta Southern association club today purchased Walter Engel from the Washington Americans. Engel played with the Buffalo team of the International League last season.

150,000 WILL BE CALLED TO COLORS DURING MONTH

First Increment of the Second Draft Has Been Increased

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Development of the second phase of the German drive in Picardy was watched closely here today, army officers apparently feeling the critical point of the great struggle rapidly approaching. Meager official reports gave little information on which to base definite opinions as to the trend of the fighting though it seemed evident that the Germans were trying to force a foothold in strategic positions before Amiens, and at the same time to increase pressure against the junction point between the French and British armies. Under the new policy laid down by Secretary Baker the war department again had nothing to add to official reports from London and Paris on the battle. Strict silence on all matters relating to the progress of the battle or the proportion of the American troops in the fighting was maintained.

The department is forging ahead with its efforts to speed additional American forces across the water to back up the beleaguered lines. One element of the speeding up plans was learned authoritatively. The first increment of the second draft to be summoned this month will be 150,000 men instead of 50,000, as previously planned. They will be the first considerable force mobilized of the 800,000 drafted men to be called to the colors this year. The remaining 650,000 will be called out in monthly increments the size of which will depend to some extent upon availability of shipping to transport men already in training to the front.

There are indications that troop movements toward the seaboard of unusual proportions are already in progress.

VIVID STORY OF GERMAN HATRED OF AMERICANS

Ghastly Illustration Told in Letter Made Public From Salvation Army Officer in France—Three Sammies Horribly Murdered.

Chicago, April 5.—A ghastly illustration of German hatred of American soldiers is given in a Salvation Army letter made public here today by Adjutant Fletcher Agnew. It was written in France by Adjutant R. C. Starbuck, who has charge of a Salvation Army hut, to Commander Eva Booth, who turned it over to Adjutant Agnew.

"I visited a base hospital recently," says the letter, "and had this story from a sergeant who had passed thru one of the raids. The sergeant was horribly wounded by a grenade, and passed by the Germans as dead. Before the sergeant lost consciousness, however, he saw a dozen Germans overpower three American boys and cut their throats from ear to ear. The sergeant said the murder of the third American was the most horrible. Four Germans held him while a fifth fairly severed his head from his body."

"I have just learned," continues the letter, "that this same company of Americans passed thru here today with their bayonets sharpened like razors, sworn to avenge this awful crime against their comrades. What can you say to men bound on such an errand except bid them strike with all their might and harder because of the righteousness of our cause and the devilishness of the enemy."

Adjutant Starbuck admits to Commander Booth that it is often very difficult to follow the dictates of forgiving Christianity while hearing daily reports of Hun atrocities.

It is the work of the enemy brigades known as butchers that makes our blood boil and makes us forget to love our enemies," he says. "These are picked brutes for raiding purposes with the purpose of intimidating by frightfulness."

BODIES OF NAVAL VICTIMS HOMEWARD BOUND

Base of the American Naval Flotilla in British Waters, April 5.—By the Associated Press.—A ship has sailed homeward with the bodies of sixteen men killed aboard the American torpedo boat destroyer Manley as a result of an explosion during a collision with a British war ship in European waters. Before the bodies were lowered into the hold of the vessel there was an impressive service on deck which was attended by officers and men representing the entire American flotilla.

SOLDIERS EXECUTED AT CAMP LOGAN

Houston, Tex., April 5.—Private John B. Mann and Walter Mathews were executed at Camp Logan this morning for the murder of Private Ralph M. Foley, Company G, 130th Infantry.

OFFICIAL WAR STATEMENTS

HEAVY FIGHTING NEAR ALBERT

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE, April 5.—Hard fighting was proceeding today north and south of Albert as the result of a heavy attack by the Germans on the British lines along a front of 9,000 yards between Aveluy and Dernacourt.

According to the latest reports, the Germans had succeeded in getting a foothold on a small triangular bit of territory just southwest of Albert which brought the attacking troops close to the Albert-Amiens railway.

ENEMY ACTIVE ON ITALIAN FRONT

ROME, April 5.—The official statement issued by the Italian war office today reads:

"Along the mountainous portions of the front the enemy carried out a persistent harassing fire against our lines on the Asiago plateau. We dispersed enemy parties on the western slopes of Mont Ortler and our artillery engaged marching troops and transport movements in the rear of the lines from Susegana to Conegliano. Our patrols carried out reconnaissance work, capturing a few prisoners in the Larsa Valley. We also put to flight the garrison of an outpost and repulsed by rifle fire hostile patrols in the Fener area.

"Along the Piave river the activity of the opposing artilleries reached remarkable intensity at intervals. The fire of our batteries caused a conflagration in the enemy's position and destroyed gangways built by the enemy opposite Grave.

"British aviators brought down three enemy machines above Olsmo and a fourth was compelled to land near Strigno."

GERMANS DELIVER STRONG ATTACKS

LONDON, April 5.—Strong attacks by the German infantry between the Somme and the vicinity of Bucquoy were delivered today but met with virtually no success according to the British official communication issued this afternoon. Heavy casualties were inflicted on the Germans.

"This morning the activity of the enemy's artillery and trench mortars increased north of the Somme and was followed by a series of strong infantry attacks along all of that portion of the battle front which lies between the Somme and Bucquoy. The latest reports indicate these attacks met with virtually no success anywhere and have resulted in further heavy casualties to the enemy.

"On the same front, our troops carried out a successful attack in the neighborhood of Hebuterne. They took some 200 prisoners and a number of machine guns. South of the Somme there were no further attacks made on the British by the enemy today. It is confirmed that the fighting yesterday on this front was of a most severe and persistent nature, the enemy making repeated assaults on our positions east of Villers-Bretonneux."

FRENCH TROOPS IMPROVE POSITIONS

PARIS, April 5.—The Germans did not resume their attacks north of Mont Didier during the course of the day. Our troops have by vigorous counter-attacks succeeded in improving their positions at several points notably in the regions of Maily-Rameval and Cantigny, the north and west outskirts of which town are in our hands, says an official statement issued tonight by the war office.

The statement reads: "The Germans did not resume their attacks on the front north of Mont Didier during the course of the day. Our troops have vigorously counter-attacked the enemy and have succeeded in improving their positions at several points notably in the region of Maily-Rameval and Cantigny, the north and west outskirts of which town are in our hands.

"The activity of both artilleries between Lassigny and Noyon have been continuously violent. A further gain of ground was realized this afternoon north of Mont Renaud. "Aviation: On Wednesday we brought down five German airplanes and one captive balloon was destroyed by fire. During Tuesday night and Wednesday our bombing squadrons made numerous sorties and 23,000 kilograms of projectiles were dropped on cantonments, stations and enemy establishments. Fires were caused notably in the stations of Laon and St. Quentin. It is confirmed that from March 31 to April 3, five other enemy airplanes were destroyed by our pilots."

BERLIN CLAIMS 90,000 PRISONERS

BERLIN, April 5.—via London.—Ninety thousand prisoners and more than 1,300 guns have been captured by the Germans in their offensive on the western front up to the present, says the German official communication issued today. The communication adds that the Germans gained successes south of the Somme and on both sides of Moreuil Thursday and that British and French reserves were repulsed in storming attacks.

The text of the communication follows: "After a hard struggle we have taken, between the Somme and the Luce rivers, Hamel and also the wooded districts northeast and southeast of Villers-Bretonneux and the castle and Maily on the west bank of the Avre.

"We attacked yesterday south of the Somme and on both sides of Moreuil and threw the enemy out from his strong positions. English and French reserves advanced against our troops. Their storming attack broke under our fire."

"The enemy showed desperate resistance on the whole of the front. His losses are consequently unusually severe. We took several thousands of prisoners.

"According to a completed calculation the number of prisoners brought in by the army of General von Hutier in the period from March 21 to March 29 amounts to 51,218 and the captured guns 729. With these captures the whole booty up to the present has risen to more than 90,000 prisoners and more than 1,300 guns.

"By way of reprisal for the continual bombardment for some days of our shelters in Laon we have taken Rheims under our fire."

"In Champagne and on the east bank of the Meuse successful thrusts have brought us prisoners. Before Verdun the artillery battle which had increased during the day was also lively during the night.

"Eastern theater: In the Ukraine we took from enemy bands on the Poltava-Constantinograd railway 28 railway cars loaded with French rifles and ammunition and more than a million artillery shells.

"In the Dniester Valley our advancing troops have taken Ekaterinoslav after an engagement."

JAPANESE NAVAL FORCES LANDED AT VLADIVOSTOK

Action Follows Attack On Jap Officer By Armed Russians

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Landing of Japanese naval forces at Vladivostok to protect life and property was reported to the state department today by the American consul there. The action followed an attack on a Japanese officer by five armed Russians who upon being refused money, killed one Japanese and wounded two others. The force landed was said to be small and only sufficient to prevent further disorders.

It was learned officially that the American government attaches no political significance to this incident. In other words it is not regarded as being connected in anyway with the much discussed possibility of Japanese intervention in Siberia. The landing party was from a Japanese cruiser stationed in Vladivostok harbor.

Since the return to Japan from Russia of Baron Uchida, the Japanese minister to Petrograd, the Japanese prime minister has indicated clearly that Japan does not intend at present at least to enter Siberia in a military way without reference to the wishes of the Russian government unless some extreme emergency should arise. It has been assumed here that such an emergency would be organization of the German military prisoners in Siberia into an armed force designed to seize control of the country or the taking possession by factions hostile to the entire allies of the great quantity of military stores accumulated at Vladivostok. Neither of these contingencies has arisen at Vladivostok and the state department's information indicates that the trouble at that port is purely local and such as might be expected to occur at any point where disorderly elements were gathered without any strong local authority in control.

While the Bolshevik element predominates at the port it never has been able to assert its authority and preserve order. Consequently, the attack upon the Japanese is regarded as indicating the existence of such a situation as under the general principles of international law would not only warrant but demand the active intervention of any foreign naval force which might be present.

BOSTON ORCHESTRA LEADER INTERNED

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Interment of Dr. Karl Muck, former leader of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, for the period of the war was ordered today by the Department of Justice. Dr. Muck held to be an enemy alien in spite of his claim to Swiss citizenship, supported by the Swiss legation will be turned over to the military authorities who will decide where he shall be imprisoned.

The department of justice after an extensive investigation of Dr. Muck's record of pro-German sympathies and utterances and his close association in the past with state leaders in Germany decided it would be dangerous to permit him to remain at large. His claims of Swiss citizenship based on the fact that his father was naturalized in Switzerland after moving from Germany were overruled under the espionage act which permits the internment of a "denizen" of an enemy country.

Dr. Muck was arrested about two weeks ago and held on a presidential warrant while the department of justice reviewed reports of secret agents who have followed the former orchestra leader's movements for several years since he obtained special permission from Emperor William to remain in this country. Since his arrest he resigned his leadership of the orchestra.

AMERICAN RED CROSS PERFORMS RECORD FEAT

PARIS, April 5.—The American Red Cross has just performed another record by preparing and shipping to a town behind the French front a tent hospital of five hundred beds within twelve hours after receiving a request from the French government. The hospital was needed to take care of patients suffering from fractured limbs who were being removed from a hospital in eastern France menaced by German air raids.

The equipment supplied by the Red Cross consisted of twenty-five tents 20 by 60 feet and each containing twenty beds. Each tent has an inner and outer wall with an air chamber between so that it can be adapted to either cold or warm weather. When set up such a hospital covers an area about the size of a football field. The equipment weigh 22 tons.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.

Chicago, April 5.—A marriage license was issued here today to Harry R. Cohen, aged 31, and Mervile L. Alwyne, 23, both of Madison, Ill.

GOVERNOR LOWDEN ISSUES PROCLAMATION

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 5.—Governor Frank O. Lowden tonight prepared the following proclamation to be read in churches throughout the state on Liberty Sunday to encourage the sale of Liberty loan bonds.

The statement was given to Charles W. Folds, federal reserve director of sales for Chicago and Cook county and is as follows: "Can anyone now doubt that if we do not loan our money to the government the German empire will take it from us. It is no longer of question of what we ought to lend but what we can lend. We are the richest nation on the globe. But our title to every dollar of our wealth is challenged by our enemies. Better far better that we should pour it out to the last dollar in defense of our liberties than that it should remain to become the spoil of German conquest. At this moment, maybe many of our boys are offering their all in the greatest battle of history. Shall we not loan our money to the cause for which they give their lives?"

PROPOSE DRASTIC MODIFICATION OF CLASSIFICATIONS

New Program for Purification of Deferred Registrant Classes

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Drastic modification of the draft classification lists which would affect in one way or another the status of every one of the millions of registered men, is proposed in a plan submitted to President Wilson today by officials of the provost marshal general's office and the department of labor. While the primary purpose of the new program is the purification of the second, third and fourth classes of registrants who are not engaged in any productive industry, attention also would be given to lower sections of Class 1 and the effect its framers believe would be to solve the nation's labor problem and largely increase the output of the necessities of life.

The proposal would utilize the draft machinery for putting industrial slackers to work. Every registered man who has been granted deferred classification would be given to understand that such deferment is not a legal right, but a privilege and that if unfair advantage is taken of that privilege it will be summarily revoked.

It is proposed to make a careful survey of the lower sections of Class 1 and of other classes to identify those men who are idlers or who are gaining their living thru undesirable or "harmful" pursuits. Under the latter head officials suggest might be listed gamblers, bookmakers for races, pool room touts and others. Formal notification would be served upon the men that unless within a specified time they obtained employment in some useful industry they would have their classified status changed so as to send them into military service immediately.

GOVERNMENT BUILDING PARTLY BURNED

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Fire of unknown origin tonight destroyed the upper floor of a building, occupied by the navy bureau of construction and repair and the camouflage section. Some supplies and papers were burned, but the damage is said to be insignificant.

No one was in the building except a watchman. So far as could be learned there is no suspicion of incendiarism. The watchman thought the blaze started in a pile of papers beneath a stairway, and the mice and matches probably were responsible.

400 PHOTOGRAPHERS WANTED

Washington, April 5.—A call for 400 photographers registered in the draft to mobilize at Madison Barracks, Sacketts Harbor, N. Y., April 15, was sent out to fifteen states today by Provost Marshal General Crowder. They will be put in the air service.

ABOLISH TEACHING OF GERMAN

Bloomington, Ill., April 5.—The boards of education of LeRoy, McLean county and Lincoln, Logan county, have voted to abolish the teaching of German in their public schools.

FIERCE BATTLE CONTINUES OVER WIDE TERRITORY

Germans are Hurling Massed Divisions Against Allies

In a battle which has lasted since Thursday and which probably is still continuing with utmost fury the Germans have been hurling massed divisions against the British and French lines from far north of Albert to a short distance north of Mondidier. Probably there has not been a more sanguinary battle fought since the beginning of the Teutonic offensive March 21 than this, which has for its objective the driving of a wedge between the British and French armies, the cutting of the Paris-Amiens railroad south of Amiens and the capture of the city.

But in spite of the power of the attack and the desperation of the fighting the entente allied legions have stood firm over the most of their front. At only two points have they been forced to give ground and these seem on the map, to be only minor successes when compared with the sacrifice of lives which they have cost. Just to the southwest of Albert the British have withdrawn a short distance and the French have given up the village of Castel, west of Moreuil, which has been the storm center of the German assaults for the last few days. At this point the Teutons are within three miles of the Paris-Amiens road.

The German official statement claims that successes both north and south of the Somme have been won and that the number of prisoners taken since the beginning of the drive has increased to 90,000 and the guns captured now total 1,300.

It seems probable that the entente allies have abandoned their Fabian tactics and now are prepared to give battle to the Germans. They have massed their lines about 12 miles east of the city of Amiens and it is evident that here they have turned at bay against the invaders. The contour of the country back of the allied lines leads itself to defensive tactics. It is quite high and is a character which compels attacking forces to expose themselves to concentrations of fire from artillery and infantry. It is necessary for the Germans to break thru the British and French lines in this region or to outflank the allies by a drive to the north and south of it. The fighting near Albert and north of Mondidier seems to have for its object the turning of the allied positions. That the Albert-Moreuil sectors are vital to the allied defense is shown by the stern resistance maintained there in the last two days.

The dawning of the first anniversary of the entry of the United States into the war finds General Pershing's soldiers somewhere in the battle zone. How many are there, what units have been chosen for the fight and where they will make their first appearance is not known. It is probable however, that an American army of some proportions is either actually in the struggle or is held in reserve immediately behind the lines. In spite of the terrific turning of the allied positions, the Albert-Moreuil sectors are vital to the allied defense is shown by the stern resistance maintained there in the last two days.

There have been artillery engagements in various sectors of the Belgian and French fronts outside of the battle area in Picardy. The city of Rheims has again been subjected to bombardment by the Germans. In no sector, however, has there been infantry fighting of unusual nature. In Italy there has been only the usual patrol activity.

A report from Berlin states that German and Turkish troops have forced British infantry and cavalry to retreat in the region north of Jericho.

A bill has been introduced in congress making strikers in American ship yards and munition factories "slackers" and imposing severe penalties. It should become law.

The price of war savings stamps has increased to $4.15. Take advantage of the present price and purchase this month. The price will be higher next month. You may invest from $4.15 to $828. If you need your money you can get it back at any time with interest at about three per cent. Where can you beat it? There are many places in the city where you can make your investment. At many of the stores and even at the Journal office the young lady clerk will be glad to sell you stamps at prices ranging from 25 cents to $4.15, bargain prices.

LIBERTY AND THE FLAG.

Today marks two great events, the start of the great third Liberty Loan drive and the celebration of the flag anniversary. If you have not a flag get one and fly it on the first anniversary of America's entrance upon the great war. Let the business streets be gay with flags and bunting. Let every residence show its colors. It need not be a large flag or a fine flag, but let it be the stars and stripes. This is a splendid opportunity for a display of patriotic sentiment.

Italians are reported to be much in need of food, the need being so great that a portion of their fighting army will have to lay down their arms for weeks in order to go into the fields and assist in planting and farm labor. This is a trouble we could remedy quickly if ship building and the other industries could be speeded up to a point that would furnish adequate transportation facilities.

England's task for the immediate present is to send reserves as rapidly as possible, until the crisis is over, and then to organize another army, raising the military age limit to 50.

Already there is a rumble in the London press which betokens a storm if men of 50 are drafted for service without conscription being enforced in Ireland. To Ireland the conscription act does not apply. Irish volunteer regiments have done valiant service, but there are only a handful of them. Had Ireland gained Home Rule, she would have been no more under obligation to send soldiers than were Canada and Australia. With Home Rule she might have done as Canada has done, adopted conscription by parliamentary vote.

LITTLE THRIFTERS.

The Hun is feverishly digging himself in. Let us dig for War Savings Stamps and rout him out. Are your dollars with our "first hundred thousand" now battling against autocracy, or are they slacker dollars, hiding at home? It's more fun to watch your money grow than to see it go. Buy War Savings Stamps.

Who sacrifices most, the man who denies himself a few luxuries or the man who leaves a leg in France? Buy War Savings stamps.

Did you ever give a tramp a pair of shoes? What did you give in return? Lend Uncle Sam $4.15 to buy a soldier a pair of shoes and you will get $5 in return.

The price of one War Savings stamp will feed a soldier a week.

A BY-WORD.

Instead of making for Germans a place in the sun, the military caste is succeeding wonderfully in making for them a place in the street, remarks the Christian Science Monitor. Take for illustration two recent instances: Germans are no longer welcome in leading Chicago clubs. The introduction of an enemy alien at one of them is regarded as sufficient cause for expulsion of the offending member, while the use of the German language and the presence of books or pamphlets favorable to Germany are prohibited. German waiters are barred. So much for Chicago which Mayor Thompson once put down as the "sixth German city of the world."

Again, the New York Athletic Club is purging itself of members or attaches known to be, or reasonably suspected of being, in sympathy with Germany and its allies. Also the use of German in conversation, the use of German books, everything of Germanic origin, or of Germanic tendencies, is being excluded. And this is only the beginning.

OVER THERE AND OVER HERE.

Over there our boys are now really in the fight against the greatest war machine the world has ever known. Thru the mud and the rain, over miles of weary roads, they marched, singing our battle songs, eager for the fray. They were glad to make the supreme sacrifice—to lay down their lives, perhaps by thousands, for the cause of freedom.

What of over here? What sacrifice did we make? What did we give up to see that these boys did not go into battle without ammunition, without cannon, without the airplanes, the lack of which leaves an army blind? While the German guns thundered and the German forces hammered their way daily nearer Paris and the sea, the people of Illinois, according to reports now at hand, sacrificed to the extent of less than 75 cents each, during March, to provide their country with war money thru the purchase of thrift and war savings stamps.

The new Liberty Loan drive is on. Illinois did not fall of its duty in previous drives, and it will not now. The state will dig down into its hoarded funds and produce its share. That is a foregone conclusion.

But will the people of Illinois make sacrifices? That is the question which the government is asking them in the war savings campaign. Will they give up some of their luxuries only $20 per capita in a year is asked—that their country may have not only the money, but the labor, factory and railroad facilities that luxuries take away from the country's war needs?

Can it be possible that there is a man, woman or child in Illinois who would not sacrifice much if convinced that such sacrifices actually meant the winning of the war? We do not believe so. But we do believe that the people—most of them—do not realize how much depends on their individual efforts. We recommend that every resident of Illinois today sign a pledge—either an actual, formal pledge to be placed on record with some war savings society, or a mental pledge filed in his own soul—to sacrifice something every day that the war lasts, and to lend every possible cent to the government each week or month by purchasing war savings stamps.

AMIENS AND ENVIRONS.

(Des Moines Capital.)

The war news of yesterday indicated that the German army was within twelve miles of Amiens. This city is one of the oldest cities in all Europe. It was a town in the days of Caesar. At the present time it has ninety thousand population. You can go by rail from Calais by way of Amiens to Paris, although that journey would be a little crooked. You can go from Boulogne, one of the best known ports on the British channel, by way of Amiens to Paris. The name "Amiens" is pronounced as tho the "s" did not appear. One of the famous cathedrals is located at Amiens. The city is devoted to manufacturing woolen and linen goods and is a large producer of velvets. Amiens was in possession of the Germans the first few weeks of this war and was evacuated at the time of the German retreat from the front of Paris. This city was in possession of the Germans in 1870. It has been marched and fought over for more than two thousand years. It is old fashioned, but like all the old fashioned towns in France such as Orleans and others, is home-like and there is an air of contentment. Amiens is about seventy-five miles from Paris. It was at this point that fifty thousand uniformed civilians fought to drive the Germans back in September, 1914. In the early spring of 1915 the editor of the Des Moines Capital, with some newspaper comrades, made his headquarters in Amiens. Amiens was twenty-six miles from the trenches which were near Albert, where the church spire hangs in the air three hundred feet above the ground. In the British forward movement of 1916 the Germans were driven twenty miles southeast of Albert and then the line was centered around St. Quentin. There are no conspicuous opportunities for a defense of Amiens. The Somme river is not much of a stream. There are no hills worth while. Hence the fighting must be in the old fashioned way on the open field. The ruins of the defenses of Amiens built in the days of Caesar are now converted into a boulevard drive. The Germans are ambitious to reach Amiens on account of the railroad facilities which the town affords and with the further hope of going thirty-six miles east or north to the British channel. The allies may begin their aggressive attacks soon and drive the Germans back. We do not believe the Germans will ever be able to get into Paris. To make the situation more aggravated, Germans from an unseen gun have been dropping shells into Paris, killing women and children. This is unhappy, but it simply insures German defeat. Battles are won by the desperation of men and not by numbers.

FOR LIBERTY.

One year ago our Uncle Sam unsheathed his sword grown rusty. Flung out Old Glory o'er the land picked up his rifle trusty. Said he: "We'll go to meet the foe before he cross the water. Or set his foot upon our shore to here begin his slaughter." And at his word we caught the step fell in where boys were lining.

With heart and soul to do our best to keep our stars a shining.

Again we fling that banner out, and cheer its folds of beauty. And loyal stand by Uncle Sam, each man to do his duty.

For we have boys "Over there," who show no shell are falling. And if we list, upon the breeze we'll hear their voices calling: "Stand by, Stand by," Dear folks at home our lads our aid are needing. We hear their pleas, we know their needs, shall we pass on unheeding?

No! By that banner floating high, before the sun at even, Shall pass beyond the western sky or stars come out in heaven. The voices calling overseas shall rouse us with their thrilling. To buy and buy for liberty, our sacred trust fulfilling.

—S. A. Hughes.

RIPPLING RHYMS

By Walt Mason

Well and Ill,
When I am well I criticise all sorts and kinds of human guys. I spring a clammy, cynic smile, and say the race is full of guile. And when I hear how neighbor Reed performed a good deed kindly, I say, "It's evident the skate will shortly be a candidate for coroner or county clerk, and thus he's getting in his work. Whenever a man plays that old game, when he assists the halt and lame, or feeds the poor, or leads the blind, you bet he has an ax to grind." When I am sick the neighbors come with jam that's made of peach or plum; they feed the hens and milk the cow, and sit and fan my brow, and stew for me the dainty prune, and feed me nostrums with a spoon. They let their work and business slide to sit thru long hours by my side, to shoo the blues and dumps away, and read me tales by Bertha Clay. All thru the long and weary night they keep my aching form in sight, and always, at the proper hour, they hand me pills and bitters sour. And I can see, thru aches and smart, how good and kind are human hearts, and I regret the bilious jeers, the cheap and tinfoil cynic sneers.

HERE AFTER 28 YEARS

Edward Wilson of Montana was in the city yesterday on his way to Chicago stopping over for a visit with old time friends including Charles Hopper, the shoe merchant. The gentleman is a son of the late Henry Wilson who lived east of the city and was in Jacksonville on his wedding trip in 1890. Naturally he sees many changes but still has a warm feeling for the place as is generally the case with those who ever lived in or near Jacksonville.

From London to Los Angeles men of good judgment wear KNOX HATS. Same styles are shown by FRANK BYRNS' Hat Store.

PUBLIC URGED TO CHANGE MAILING PLANS

Assistant Postmaster General Suggests Change That Is Desirable In Order to Prevent Delays.

Postmaster R. I. Dunlap has received the following communication from J. C. Koons, first assistant postmaster general, with reference to war time mail service. In this article Mr. Koons urges business men to mail letters more times a day instead of having all the letters resulting from the day's work posted at one time. By this procedure the sorting and forwarding of mail will be spread over a greater number of hours and there is less likelihood of congestion in postoffices or in the train service. The article, which clearly sums up the situation, is as follows:

At the beginning of the war the Post Office Department announced its intention to curtail or restrict the postal service, and in the face of adverse conditions has endeavored to carry out its policy. The rearrangement of traffic conditions throughout the country incident to the war has greatly increased the volume of mail, and it is felt that if one feature is brought clearly to the attention of the business world much benefit will result to all.

Rearrangements effected, from time to time, with a view to expediting shipments of war material have brought about a large reduction in facilities available for transportation of the mails. The connection with the abnormal increase in bulk of mailings, has resulted in greatly overburdened the service during some portions of the day and in delay and congestion at some points.

At present it is the practice of many business men and firms to hold practically all outgoing mail until the late afternoon or early evening hours. This necessitates the facing, cancellation, distribution, pouching and dispatching of mail from 80 to 90 per cent of all outgoing matter within a period of three or four hours. It is apparent that this work could be distributed over twelve or fourteen hours not only would it be handled with greater facility but its dispatch would be hastened many hours.

POST LETTERS PROMPTLY

Realizing the losses and inconveniences which mail delays to business men and other patrons cause of delayed mails, the Department is utilizing every means available to expedite and strain every nerve to render the best service possible in the circumstances. The Department is now making every effort to expedite the business men of the country can be of invaluable assistance in meeting the situation, by making the business expense to themselves, by making some slight changes in their daily routine. Ordinarily it is the utmost importance that letters be posted promptly to secure their dispatch on the first scheduled train as far as to make a connection. It is now much more serious than in normal times and might result in a delay in delivery of twenty-four hours or more.

Attention is invited to the advisability of signing and preparing for dispatch all letters and other mail in the noon, and of mailing them at that time; thus a considerable quantity would be in transit to destination before the close of the business day.

In view of the foregoing it is urgently requested that our organization impress upon business men the great advantage to be gained by both the Department and the public if they will adopt the practice of depositing their mail in the postoffice or street collection boxes not only only in the day but as frequently as may be feasible. It would also tend to relieve congestion and facilitate the handling and dispatch of the mails if heavy mailers would make it a regular practice to have all letter and circular mail, as well as catalogues, pamphlets, etc., bearing uncancelled stamps, properly faced or cancelled, with the short and long letters separated.

The Department desires to emphasize the fact that it is not using this action as an economical measure, but for the purpose of meeting, as far as possible, the present complicated situation incident to war activities.

Very truly yours,
J. C. KOONS,
First Assistant Postmaster General.

Richelieu coffee. Douglas.

LIEUT GRAFF HERE FOR BRIEF VISIT

Byron Graff is here from Springfield, Mass., for a two days' furlough. He was granted this time to visit his new son, who arrived in Springfield one day this week. Lieut. Graff found Mrs. Graff and their son doing splendidly and he will return to the east tonight.

As previously mentioned, Lieut. Graff with 125 other officers was recently chosen for some special work in the ordnance department in the preparation of guns which are to be used in the aviation service. The work is very interesting and of course of a kind that a soldier is not permitted to discuss. It is quite probable that a number of the officers at Springfield will soon go abroad with troops.

BIG CROPS ESSENTIAL FOR ALLIED VICTORY

Farmers of Northern and Western States are Told the Serious Situation That Confronts Forces Battling for Democracy.

Washington, April 5.—The individual duty of every farmer to produce large crops this year from his land is being stressed by group of prominent agricultural speakers traveling through the northern and western states, after conferences in Washington with Secretary of Agriculture Houston and Food Administrator Hoover. A similar campaign already has been conducted in the southern states.

Every farm in every locality should strive to feed itself, the speakers say. This is imperative as a measure on supply in each community and so that all unnecessary transportation of foodstuffs may be avoided. Every farm should have a home garden and should store, can, and dry a sufficient quantity of fruits and vegetables for home use throughout the year.

Throughout the States where spring wheat can be grown profitably, the Department is calling attention to the need of planting a large acreage. The speakers have been given the latest information upon the wheat situation in this country and abroad, and they will lay the facts before the farmers of these regions. The latest figures show that the Allies produced last year but little over one-third the wheat they produced prior to the war.

SEED CORN SITUATION SERIOUS
Early fall frosts followed by wet weather and severe freezing have made the seed corn problem throughout the country exceedingly difficult, making campaigns for ear-dest seed imperative. The planting season must find every farm of the great corn belt with an adequate supply of seed corn that will grow.

A 15 per cent increase in the number of hogs is needed, as pork is the mainstay of the ration of the laboring man and the soldier and the need for more fats is acute. The acreage of alfalfa, clover, cowpeas, soy beans and other essential forage plants should be maintained or increased to conserve more grains for human consumption.

MAINTAIN DAIRY PRODUCTION
The dairy industry must be maintained. The dairy cow produces more food with less feed than any other domestic animal, so that dairy products are most economical and conserve more grains for human consumption. Skimmed milk condensed in cottage cheese has as much food value as meat and should be increasingly used.

TOWN SHOULD HELP OUT IN FARM LABOR PROBLEM
The farm labor problem must be met by closer cooperation between town and farm folks. The town must realize that the bulk of their population came from farms and that in times of stress those of their people who are farm-bred should help out the farming community during the peak of its labor need at planting and harvest. Local business men's organizations have shown a desire to cooperate with the farming interest, and it is necessary whenever they have been solicited to do so. The town must realize that the farmer is not alone responsible for the production of food for the towns and cities. The farmer is the backbone of the nation and the towns and cities are dependent upon him for their food and clothing. The towns and cities should assist the farmer in his operations.

The better dressed men in most of the larger cities wear Knox hats. Another reason they are sold by FRANK BYRNS' Hat Store.

To be told that the Dodgers are fully as strong as they were last year is surely encouraging news for the Brooklyn fans.

OVERLAND CARS PASS THRU CITY.

Twenty two Overland cars passed thru the city Friday enroute from Toledo, Ohio, to Parsons, Kans. The cars were in charge of O. H. Bond of the Bond Motor company of Parsons and were following the Ocean to Ocean trail. The flotilla stopped at the Priest garage for supplies about 5:30 o'clock. The cars took on 250 gallons of gas and proceeded on their way. They expect to go the way of Valley City and Hannibal. The flotilla had excellent roads all the way except for a short distance from Toledo. The party carries a cook and camping outfit and are camping out on the way.

Fuel Administrator Sounds Warning

"The people of Illinois are not giving proper heed to the warnings of the State Council of Defense and the Fuel Administration," said John E. Williams, Fuel Administrator, this week. "They are not planning against another dire coal situation. They are not buying coal; they are not preparing to store it as we have urged them to do. You know what that means."

"Yes; it means, people of Illinois, that if you don't HEED these warnings there will be another shortage of fuel next winter, another congestion of railway traffic, another suspension of industry, another battle won by the military autocrats of Prussia."

DEATHS

Harris.

John B. Harris died at his home in Chicago Thursday. He was stricken with paralysis about a year ago and had been bedfast ever since.

Deceased was born on a farm north of Jacksonville in 1841 and spent the early years of his life in this county. Twenty-five years ago he removed to Chicago where he has since resided.

When the Civil War was started Mr. Harris enlisted and served during that conflict. His health was broken during his service and he was always ailing since.

He is survived by the following: A. J. Harris of this county, Thomas C. Harris of Pueblo, Colo., Mrs. Martha J. Berry of Chicago and Mrs. Martinette Colwell of Ottumwa, Iowa.

Mr. Harris was a member of the Methodist church and of the G. A. R. and was a man highly respected by all who knew him. The remains will arrive in the city from Chicago this morning at 7 o'clock and will be taken to the undertaking parlors of John G. Reynolds. Funeral services will be held from the parlors at 10:30 o'clock in charge of the Rev. G. T. Wetzel. Burial will be in Jacksonville cemetery.

MAXIMUM WAR SAVINGS CLUB PROGRESSES

The organization of the Maximum War Savings Club, of which Frank J. Waddell is chairman, is progressing in a very satisfactory way and it will be possible within a short time to announce the names of the members. Each person who becomes a member of this organization agrees to purchase at least $1,000 worth of war savings certificates in the course of the year.

It was stated yesterday by Mr. Waddell that already sixteen members are enrolled and assurances have been received from at least nine others that they will soon become members. When stamps or certificates are sold at the rate of $1,000 at a time, rapid progress is made toward the Morgan county goal.

Many American women are taking up the profession of architecture.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel, there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do what which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating. No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 25c and 50c per box. All druggists.

NEW BOOKS AT THE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

The following list of books will go into circulation Saturday, April 6, 1918. A long list of books on the war seems suitable to "Liberty Day."

THE WAR

Barres—The Underlying Spirit of France. "The poet Charles Perrot was killed before Arras on the twenty-third of October; one of his comrades, perceiving that he was ill, said to him: 'I am going to take your place. You have done your full duty. Go and get some rest.' To which Perrot replied: 'There is no end to doing one's duty.'"

Belmont—A Crusader of France. Captain Belmont was killed in action in 1918. His book reveals a winning personality and is well entitled to be called "The French Student in Arms."

Boland—Women's Work in War Time.

Bernstein—The Willy Nicky Correspondence. These are the secret and intimate telegrams exchanged between the Kaiser and the Czar.

Chardanne—The U. S. and Pan-Germania. "Germany no longer exists, in her place stands Pan-Germany whose existence is incompatible with the independence of the U. S. and the freedom of the world."

The Crime by the author of "I Accuse." It has been said of this German that because he loves the Fatherland, he dares tell the truth.

Farmer and Huntington—Food Problems. This little book applies arithmetic to the war.

"The people in Washington who are trying to lead the U. S. to victory are using arithmetic every minute. They are finding out how much fuel, how much food, how many guns we have in this country. They are calculating how long it will take to produce larger supplies or how best the supplies we have may be conserved. They are fighting the war by arithmetic."

Frazier—Woman and War. "Your hearts are lifted up, your hearts have foreknown the utterance of a flame of splendor and of sacrifice. The actual life of a soldier on the western front."

Keene—Crumps. The plain story of a Canadian who went to France.

Trotzky—The Bolshevik and World Peace.

Wounded and a Prisoner of War, by an exchanged officer.

Willmore—The Great Crime and its Moral.

THREE NOVELS WITH WAR THEMES

Sinclair—Tree of Heaven. "A delightful English family, father, mother, three sons and a daughter, from their babyhood to the time of the war. Remarkable in its characterization and in its contrasts between the peace and happiness in childhood, through the changes and unrest of their youth and the desolation which almost overwhelms the mother as each of her children characteristically responds to the national call."

Tinney—To Arms. An impression of the spirit of France through the sufferings of a French woman at the beginning of the war.

Vance—False Faces.

OTHER LITERATURE

Morley—Recollections. "One of the works that appear hardly oftener than once in a decade, books indispensable for all students of modern history and social life and public affairs of our own age."—Literary Digest.

Teasdale—Answering Voice. "My debt to you, Beloved is one I cannot pay."

In any coin of any realm on any reckoning day.

For where is he shall figure the debt, when all is said.

To one who makes you dream again when all the dreams were dead?

Weeks—Psychology and Citizenship. Civic issues call for intelligence, imagination and study on the part of the citizen. This little book discusses some vital questions.

WAR RECREATION FUND
GROWING STEADILY

TOTAL CONTRIBUTIONS NOW
MORE THAN $3500.

Reports Made at Luncheon Friday Show Work is Progressing Smoothly—Chapin Organization Plan Commended—M. F. Dunlap's Resume of War Conditions Stirred Company—Words of Warning to Farmers Who Hold Wheat.

The war recreation fund campaign is progressing nicely, according to the statement made last night by Rev. W. E. Spoons, the campaign manager. At the luncheon given for city and county workers at the Y. M. C. A. Friday noon reports presented showed the contributions of $3,334.55. In the afternoon additional reports were received which brought the contributions past the $3500 mark. It was shown at the luncheon that in a number of districts it has been impossible for the workers to attend to their canvassing but that the work would be carried on either today or Monday and there is really no question but that the total fund will be raised for war recreational purposes and for the payment of the necessary expenses in connection with the various war time campaigns in Morgan county.

What To Do When Backache Comes On

"Foley Kidney Pills have done me more good than $1500.00 worth of other medicine," writes Chas. N. Fox of Hiram, N. Y. When backache comes on, and it seems as if you can't stand the pain and pressure in the small of your back and sides, do not feel that you must continue to suffer, but get a bottle of Foley Kidney Pills and begin taking them. They usually help from the very first doses. It is worth a good deal to you to know that Foley Kidney Pills give you just what your system needs to repair the weak sick kidneys. It is their inability to do their work properly that causes your pain and misery. Foley Kidney Pills lend to middle-aged and elderly people the spryness and elasticity of youth. They take away the cause of backache, stiff and aching joints, rheumatic pains and annoying bladder and urinary troubles. Try them today.

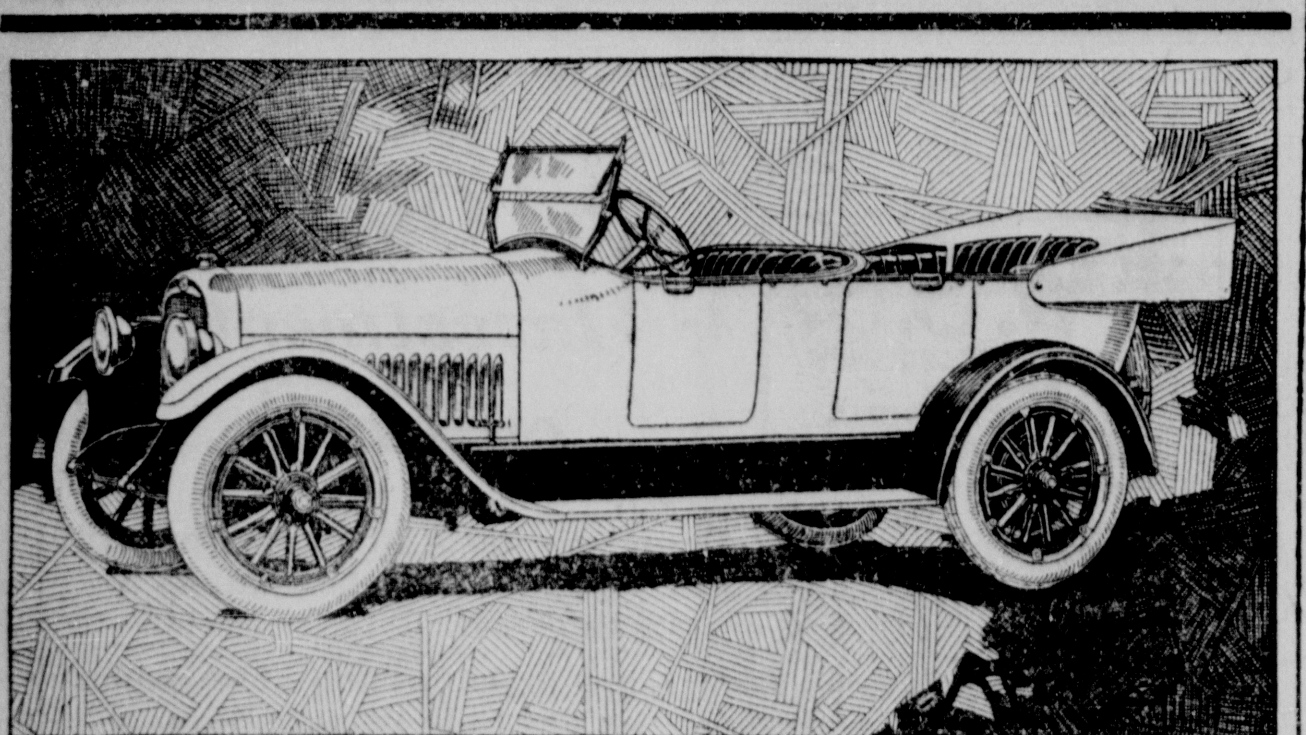

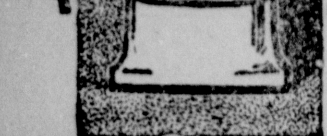

A
Purposeful Formula

Senreco's formula is not "just a little of this and a little of that."

It was devised with a definite object in view. The object was to produce a tooth paste possessing medicinal as well as cleansing properties—a real cleanser that could be depended upon to remove tartar and keep mouth and gums healthy.

The ideal defined, our laboratories set about to determine the proper combination to produce it. Senreco is the result. It has been tried, tested and pronounced good by hundreds of the profession. Try a tube. The single tube will prove every claim. Will show why thousands today use and demand Senreco—and are satisfied with nothing less. All druggists and toilet counters. Large 2 oz. tube—25c.

Contributors need have no fear that any excess of contributions will not be used in a satisfactory way. For M. F. Dunlap gave a suggestion which met with hearty approval, that should there be any excess of contributions that the sum will be added to the Red Cross treasury. Ora Han of Concord mentioned that the canvassing work in his precinct had been interfered with somewhat by an egg drive recently made for Red Cross purposes. It developed that these solicitors were not "foreigners" but from the neighboring precinct of Chapin, the ladies of the organization there having conceived the idea of asking persons to contribute all the eggs gathered on Easter day or a sum of money equivalent to the market price of such eggs. As a result of their efforts more than $150 was contributed to the Red Cross purposes.

Chapin's Good Plan
A. L. French in explaining something about this egg drive plan told how the men's relief organization had collected the recreation fund of $160 in three hours' time. He also indicated that the committee has in its treasury a surplus which can be applied to the next war time campaign in the discretion of the committee. Mr. French championed the cause of his home precinct and had no trouble in convincing his audience that the organization there is working smoothly and has an operation plan commendable at once for its patriotic purposes and its business-like principles.

Altogether it was an enthusiastic gathering and the brief reports from all of the districts were listened to with earnest attention. Mr. Dunlap also intended to make only brief remarks, really gave a patriotic address in which he covered the war situation in a forceful way, and very strongly emphasized the duty of every patriotic citizen at this time.

Local Prosperity
"What does this sum of $5,000 amount to," said Mr. Dunlap, "when we can take into account that the banks of this county now have $10,000,000 in deposits. This money does not belong to the banks but to the people of the county. And by comparison with this sum the money asked for recreation fund and for the expenses of the various county campaigns is really insignificant. As a matter of fact if the people only realized the situation it would not be necessary for members of these teams to go about soliciting but people would gladly come forward and make their pledges without being asked."

"We have been told right along that the armies of the allies outnumbered the Germans in the western front, that they had more equipment and were ready to meet any attack. A terrific battle has been raging there in France. We do not know all the details but it has come to me thru business channels in a way that I am confident that there is truth in the statement; that twice the German forces broke thru the allied lines and that if they had really penetrated the lines that the French and English forces would have been separated and the greatest blow of the war thus far would have been administered to the allied forces."

Victory Still Far Off
"This means that Germany is marvellously strong and there is everything to indicate that this country is in for a long struggle. This war is far from won and the members of this finance committee, formed for organization work thru the period of the war, may have several years of service and yet team workers may be several years older before your campaign work is completed."

These are serious times and serious duties confront us, and the taking part and contributing in such a campaign as this is a matter of both privilege and duty. I heard of one of the solicitors who approached a man whose income tax was at least $1100 and after much solicitation secured the offer of a dollar. I admire the spirit of the solicitor who refused to take that dollar.

"But I did not take the floor intending to make a speech of this length, and there is only one point that I wish to be repeated in the newspapers and that is with reference to wheat. A shortage greater than the people realize exists. The government orders are imperative that every farmer who holds wheat must deliver it to an elevator. Instructions have gone forward to hotels and all public eating houses to cut down consumption of wheat and the government wisely intends that the soldiers in our army and of the allied armies, shall have wheat products even if it is necessary for us to have corn bread three days a week. The government is right and as food administrator I want to give notice now that every farmer in this county who has wheat had better market it at once or the supply will be requisitioned in the name of the government and marketed for him."

Makes a Man Want to Fight
"No, I did not intend to make these remarks but when I study from the information we have the conditions at the war front, and when I realize the facts about our wheat shortage and consider the great task that America faces how we are pushing preparations along as best we can, I get so full of the whole subject that I am almost ready myself to go out and fight."

Local Prosperity
"What does this sum of $5,000 amount to," said Mr. Dunlap, "when we can take into account that the banks of this county now have $10,000,000 in deposits. This money does not belong to the banks but to the people of the county. And by comparison with this sum the money asked for recreation fund and for the expenses of the various county campaigns is really insignificant. WEEKLY LUNCHEON

Rev. M. L. Pontius Gave Talk on Personal Experiences at Camp Logan—Committee Appointments Made.

The weekly luncheon of the Rotary club was held at the Pacific hotel Friday noon. After luncheon an hour was spent mainly in talking of organization plans and the work of the club. Rev. M. L. Pontius made a brief address and gave an intimate picture of some of his personal experiences during the month he was at Camp Logan. The address was given in a conversational way and touched upon various matters which could not properly be handled in a public address. The members of the club heard the minister's relation of his experiences and observations with the keenest interest. The names of committees were announced, the president serving as ex officio member. These committees are: Entertainment, in charge of programs, functions, etc.—Rev. M. L. Pontius, E. E. Crabtree, W. D. Doying.

Fellowship, to promote acquaintance and friendship—Frank Byrns, T. M. Tomlinson, Edward Brennan.

Public affairs, in charge of matters of public welfare—W. L. Fay, Henry Frisch, Dr. J. R. Harkner.

A membership committee was named and the members of this committee are known only to the president and secretary. This is in accordance with the plan adopted by the national Rotary organization and the procedure for the selection of members is also laid down by the national organization. It is understood that the membership of the club is now to be speedily enlarged to include one representative of each business and profession in Jacksonville.

WAR RELICS ON
LIBERTY LOAN TRAIN

Jacksonville Included in Itinerary—Train With War Relics, Soldiers and Speakers Coming Here April 25th.

The great World War is to be brought closely home to the citizens of the seven states and parts of states comprising the Eighth Federal Reserve District in a most forceful manner.

A special train, laden with war relics direct from the battle front in France and from the devastated land of Belgium, will be brought to the homes of the people of this district and they can actually be brought into close touch with the terrible loss of the war. This train will be in Jacksonville April 25th, from 12:30 p. m. to 2:30 p. m.

The War Department at Washington, and the French Government, have supplied these war trophies. They will consist of guns, captured from the Germans of shells whose contents have performed their work of destruction, of helmets that adorned the heads of the enemy, of unique and terrible implements of war, and shattered treasures that tell of the ruthless destructiveness of the Hun.

There will be aeroplanes that have figured in raids over the enemy lines, and their planes that were brought to earth by Allied gunners and so disabled that they are no longer useful.

All manner of arms, both of the Allies and the German, will be shown. There will be the gas bombs, shrapnel shells, mortars, and minatures of the terrible U-boats and models of the submarines used by the American Navy and the navies of the Allies.

These comprehensive relics of the greatest war the world has ever known will be loaded on two flat cars to each train. In addition there will be a sleeping car and a baggage car in each train. The exhibits will be arranged on the flat cars, and the people may walk along on a platform and see and even touch some of the relics.

Speakers of National reputation will accompany each train, and will deliver addresses from the train. There will also be in the party soldiers from the English, French and American armies who have actually seen service at the front and who will make short talks at each stop. The speakers and soldiers will live in the sleeping car during the tour.

WITH THE SICK

S. L. Hamilton of Carlville, who underwent an operation at Our Savior's hospital three weeks ago, was able to return home yesterday. His rapid recovery at his advanced age, 83 years, speaks well for his rugged vitality and the care he received at the institution.

PAVING MATERIALS HERE
Engineer Henderson received notice Friday morning that the material for the paving now under way in the city is arriving and that work will be commenced immediately. This was welcome news to the city authorities as there has been some doubt as to whether the material could be shipped under present conditions and government regulations. It is hoped that all paving now under course of construction will be pushed to completion.

AUTOMOBILE HITS BOY
Mike Romanelli son of S. Romanelli of South East street was struck by an automobile Thursday afternoon. The boy was taken to Our Savior's Hospital and given necessary surgical attention and it was found that his injuries were slight.

FUNERAL NOTICE.
Funeral services for Chelsea Irene Brennan will be held from the Church of Our Savior this morning at 10 o'clock, with burial in Calvary cemetery.

SENATE SPENDS DAY
DEBATING SEDITION BILL

All Other Business Laid Aside for Denunciation of Disloyalty, Sedition, German Spies and the I. W. W.

Washington, April 5.—All other business was laid aside by the senate today for denunciation of disloyalty, sedition, German spies and the I. W. W. and discussion of how the espionage act should be extended so as to curb these evils and avoid mob law, without abridging the fundamental liberties of American citizens.

While the senate debated the pending sedition bill, carrying severe penalties for disloyal utterances and attempts to obstruct the draft or Liberty Loans, President Wilson and the cabinet gave attention to reports of the lynching of Robert Prager, a German, at Collinsville, Ill., last night. Members of the cabinet said afterward the deplorable incident emphasized the necessity for immediate legislation that would enable the government to deal with disloyalty and enemy agitation so that the people would not be tempted to take the law into their own hands.

Administration leaders in the senate hope to pass the sedition bill tomorrow, the anniversary of America's entrance into the war. An agreement for a vote tomorrow, sought tonight by Senator Overman of North Carolina in charge of the measure was blocked by Senator Reed of Missouri.

The Missouri senator said he was in sympathy with the general purposes of the legislation but thought it should not be hastily considered. When Senator Overman stated that the attorney general had urged passage of the bill today because its provisions would be needed during the Liberty Loan campaign, Senator Reed said that was "utter nonsense."

Several efforts to widen the scope of the bill were made today but there were criticisms that its prohibitions against disloyal and seditious utterances are already too broad. Senator Lodge of Massachusetts introduced an amendment prohibiting transmission thru the mails of any matter printed in the German language and Senator Lewis of Illinois offered one would forfeit the citizenship and property of persons adjudged disloyal by a jury.

During the discussion the attitude of Victor L. Berger, Socialist candidate for the senate in the recent Wisconsin election was denounced by Senators Borah of Idaho and Lodge, as disloyal and verging on treason.

Senator Lodge while urging the death penalty for spies and German agents who destroy property in this country said the bill's restrictions upon free speech were too broad and could be used to suppress legitimate discussion.

Senator Hardwick of Georgia, suggested that they might prevent peace talk later when such discussion might be proper.

Opposing a provision of the bill penalizing declarations in favor of Germany's allies, Senator Lodge pointed out that the United States is at war with Turkey or Bulgaria, altho he said "we ought to be."

All during the day's debate were frequent warnings from various senators against the danger of resorts to violence by the indignant populace against disloyal utterances.

Senator Borah called the senate's attention to the lynching at Collinsville. Senator Fall of New Mexico said that if congress does not enact the necessary laws the people "would take the law into their own hands with Judge Lynch."

Also he said, mobs will act if guilty persons escape the technicalities of the law.

WINCHESTER

Winchester, April 5.—W. B. Clark and M. B. Edmondson drove over from Clayton today in Mr. Clark's auto which he purchased recently from Mr. Edmondson.

Albert Coultas is reported ill at his home west of this place. Eli Lankford and family of Springfield are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Beird and son Roy of Bluffs were Winchester visitors Friday, making the trip by motor.

Miss Beatrice Hainsfurther and Miss Margaret Coultas returned Thursday night from Bluffs where they, as supervisors have been instructing a class of twenty ladies in Red Cross surgical dressings work. The class completed the standard course.

Mrs. Henry Pfenninger of Alsey was a visitor here today.

An interesting program was given at the high school Friday afternoon by the pupils in behalf of the third Liberty loan campaign. If the enthusiasm shown at the meeting is any indication of the effect of the meeting, sales of the war loan bonds should be boosted over the top in short order in this community.

Mrs. Don Farrington received word today from her son Earl of Freeport of the arrival of a little son at his home.

WEST JACKSONVILLE

HENEY RESIGNS FROM
TRADE COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Francis J. Heney who resigned as counsel for the federal trade commission in its investigation of the packing industry left the commission April 1 to return to California where he will be a candidate for governor. His original term of employment was extended several times by the commission to permit him to hold hearing in various cities where the ramifications of the evidence taken from the files of the Chicago packing houses led.

The commission still has several investigators in the field working on various angles of the packing industry which have not been cleared up.

Public hearings in New York to develop facts in the butter and egg market there were cancelled by Mr. Heney last week without other explanation than that the time was not opportune.

The packing investigation has been placed under the direction of Commissioner Victor Murdock, who also has been named by Chairman Harris as the representative of trade and business on the board to which President Wilson entrusted the task of formulating a national policy with regard to meats.

Investigators for the commission are continuing certain phases of the inquiry still pending. It was said authoritatively that Mr. Heney's departure and the abandonment of further public hearings did not indicate any change of policy on the part of the commission.

ORIGIN OF KANSAS CITY FIRE UNKNOWN

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 5.—Officials investigating the fire which last night devastated three square blocks in a wholesale and manufacturing district causing a property loss estimated at $2,500,000 were unable tonight to fix definitely the origin but were strongly inclined toward an incendiary theory as a result. It was said of statements obtained from persons who witnessed the fire in its early stages and who declared the Abernathy Furniture company's building, where the fire originated, apparently was ablaze on all sides within a few minutes. Unofficial estimates of the individual losses tonight showed the Ridenour-Baker Grocery company probably the heaviest losers, their damage being placed at $250,000, partly covered by insurance.

NEW PLAN TO COMBAT
GERMAN PROPAGANDA

NEW YORK, April 5.—A new plan to combat German propagandists and peace advocates was announced here today by the National Special Aid Society whereby 50,000 women, members of the society and as many others as may be later enrolled, are to wear patriotic pennants—a Lincoln cent, attached to a red, white and blue ribbon, which will mean that the wearer will not talk peace nor listen to such talk from anyone else.

The organization, with chapters in many states was formed by Mrs. William Alexander who is now in France to mobilize the women of the nation for service to the country and humanity and to teach patriotism and preparedness.

GLASS FOUND IN BREAD

New York, April 5.—Bread in which particles of glass were found was traced today to an east side bakery, in which 47 of the 110 employees are enemy aliens, according to a statement by District Attorney Martin of Bronx county where the complaint originated. Additional complaints of glass being found in bread, ginger snaps and other baked stuff were made today to the police of all five boroughs in the city.

PATRIOTIC CELEBRATIONS
TODAY

Washington, April 5.—The opening tomorrow of America's third Liberty loan campaign for popular war credits on the anniversary of the declaration of war, promises to resemble Independence Day as an occasion for patriotic celebrations.

Reports tonight to headquarters of the Third Liberty loan, public meetings and bonfires, public meetings and loyalty speeches to drive home appeals for subscriptions to Government bonds.

APPEAL FROM DECISION OF CHICAGO COURTS

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The government today appealed from the decision of the Chicago circuit court of appeals denying the federal trade commission possession of papers belonging to Harry Veeder, a Chicago attorney, wanted by the commission in its packing house inquiry.

After Veeder, who is counsel for the packers, had refused to surrender the papers, representatives of the commission asked the federal district court in Chicago for a search warrant. The motion was granted by the court, but upon appeal the circuit court of appeals reversed the decree and quashed the warrant. The department of justice then brought the case to the supreme court.

COLLEGE PROFESSOR
VICTIM OF CONSPIRACY

ASHLAND, Wis., April 5.—E. A. Schimler, professor of Modern languages at Northland College who claims to be a victim of conspiracy involving his loyalty which resulted in his dismissal last Sunday night by a number of young men denies the report that he was dismissed as a member of the college faculty. Professor Schimler submitted his resignation after Sunday's episode, the resignation being accepted only after insistence upon the part of the professor.

In a statement made today Professor Schimler protests against any attempt at casting reflections upon his sentiments of loyalty.

"As an American by adoption who has received his early training and collegiate education in this country," Professor Schimler wrote, "I believe in the loyal support of the American flag and the vindication of American sovereign rights in this most deplorable world's conflict, in which we have become involved."

Mayor Dana, members of the college board and the district attorney at the behest of Professor Schimler, are making a thorough investigation with a view of exonerating him on a disloyalty charge of the treatment administered to the professor a reward has been offered by Mayor Dana for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the guilty parties.

INJUNCTION SUIT FILED

St. Louis, Mo., April 5.—An injunction suit was filed in the circuit court today by John J. Reiser against Jack Dempsey, contender for the heavy-weight boxing championship and John Kearns, his present manager, to enjoin Dempsey from operating under any other manager than Reiser in boxing exhibitions. Reiser alleges he entered into an agreement with Dempsey on December 18, 1916, by which he was to be the latter's manager for three years.

Louis April 6, when the city will give voice to its feelings in a blaze of patriotism that will live long in memory. Saturday, April 6, will be the first anniversary of America's entry into the war for freedom and justice. That day has been selected by Secretary McAdoo as fitting for launching the Third Liberty Loan campaign. Preparations have been made for making Liberty Day the greatest patriotic occasion in the history of St. Louis. A monster parade will march thru Forest Park to Art Hill where it is expected an audience of more than 150,000 will assemble in the natural amphitheatre. More than 50,000 soldiers and civilians are expected to be in the procession.

Vice President Thomas R. Marshall will be the speaker of the day. He will deliver an address from a reviewing stand built on the brow of Art Hill. He will be introduced by Governor Frederick D. Gardner. Mayor Henry W. Kiel, and many other prominent persons will be upon the platform, including representatives from all of the allied nations and several hundred of the parents of soldiers and sailors. These mothers and fathers will carry service flags and be guests of honor on the reviewing stand.

A gigantic service flag in honor of more than 22,000 St. Louisians who are in the army and navy will be raised above the reviewing stand and the largest American Flag in the world will be hoisted on the side of Art Hill. The service flag will contain 32,313 stars, one for every St. Louisian serving his country.

The parade will assemble on Lindell, McPherson and Vandeventer avenues and proceed west to the entrance of Forest Park via the Grand Drive to the foot of Art Hill where the vice president and other prominent men will review the procession.

One of the features of the parade will be the Great Lakes Training band composed of 350 jacksies, directed by Lieut. John Philip Sousa. It has been arranged for part of this band to give a concert at Art Hill for the crowd awaiting the arrival of the parade. The Great Lakes Training Station band will give public concerts in Forest Park Sunday afternoon.

Several members of the band will tour the principal cities of the Eighth Federal Reserve district following their appearance in St. Louis Liberty Day.

Day light fireworks will be an interesting feature of the celebration. The display will be symbolic of the event. Rockets shot into the sky above the waiting crowd at Art Hill will burst into patriotic figures, such as the Goddess of Liberty, Uncle Sam, the American flag, and the Spirit of Victory.

While the parade is on the move a squadron of aviators from Scott Field, Ill., will fly over the city, and drop "bombs." The bombs will take the form of literature appealing to everybody to invest in Liberty bonds.

Mayor Kiel has proclaimed Saturday a holiday and every business house will be asked to close during the celebration. Stores and buildings will be decorated with flags, bunting and Liberty Bond posters. Factory whistles will be blown and bells rung in observance of the day.

The Liberty Bond Publicity Committee will display posters and slogans thruout the business section of the city calling upon citizens to invest in bonds and back the army fighting to halt the Hun.

The parade will consist of four divisions—military, war activities, uniform ranks of fraternal organizations, civic and labor bodies. There will be more than 5,000 soldiers in the procession, including 1,000 officers and men from Jefferson Barracks, and two regiments of Home Guards, Major H. B. Edmonds, with mounted escort will follow. Vice President Marshall, Gov. Gardner, Mayor Kiel and William R. Compton, chairman of the Liberty Loan Committee, with an escort of Marines. An escort of the colors of the Allies will be in command of Lieut. F. E. Turin, of the French army.

In the military division will be the regular army, navy, drum and bugle corps, United States Naval Corps, with Lieut. F. L. Willson in command, two squadrons from Scott Aviation Field, under command of Maj. De Orman and Lieut. Biddle. The First and Third regiments of the Home Guard commanded by Col. Phillip B. Fouke, Col. M. Chouteau Dyer, Col. H. D. Mezide, the G. A. R. veterans, Spanish American war veterans, and the post office employees.

The war activities division will include representatives of the Third Liberty Loan organization, the Red Cross, the Young Men's Christian Association, the Y. W. C. A., Knights of Columbus, Boy Scouts, the National Council of Defense, the War Savings Committee, the Soldiers and Sailors Club, Naval Scouts, Camp Environment Committee, United States Sailors-Parents League and Central Committee on Food Conservation.

The Third division—uniform ranks—will include Knights Templar, Shriner, Knights of Columbus, Knights of Pythias, Odd Fellows, Elks and other fraternal lodges.

The Fourth Division will consist of labor organizations, and civic and commercial bodies, including the Chamber of Commerce, The Rotarians, the Jovians, the Trades Assembly and others.

More than a dozen bands are expected to participate in the parade. There bands will assemble at Art Hill and play under direction of Lieut. Sousa. When the celebration closes the bands led by Sousa will play the Star Spangled Banner at retreat and the flag will be lowered.

It is expected that thousands of persons from nearby towns and cities will witness the parade and other events of the day.

FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF ENTRANCE OF U. S. INTO GREAT WAR

Great Resources of Country Just Coming Into Struggle—Achievements of First Year Have Been Satisfactory to Officers.

Washington, April 5.—The first anniversary of the entrance of the United States into the war finds the great resources of the country just coming into the struggle but rapidly being prepared.

The achievements of the first year are chiefly divided between the Army, which has been supplying and training fighting forces; the Navy, which has been building the submarine and conveying troops and supplies to Europe; the Shipping Board which has been building a merchant marine and the Treasury which has been advancing credits to the Allies.

In all other departments of the government there has been a tremendous effort to bring all the force of the country's resources and power to the aid of the actual fighting machine.

For military reason it is not permissible to the extent of military of American troops in France with General Pershing's expedition, but Secretary Baker, in recent testimony before the Senate Military Committee predicted half a million men would be there early this year and that another million would be ready to go during the year.

American troops have taken up several positions on the fighting line in France, have occupied a sector of their own northwest of Toul, and have had numerous encounters with the Germans. Official statements from the British and German army headquarters have shown that certain American fighting forces were thrown into the battle brought on by the great German offensive in the spring, the British war office first reporting them as fighting shoulder to shoulder with the British and French troops in the vicinity of Roye.

By referring to the combined forces of the regular army and national guard a year ago, and comparing the strength of the regular army now, the National Guard mustered into Federal service, and the men of the first draft in cantonments, it is apparent that the total number of ready fighting men has been increased from a meagre two hundred thousand to something like a million and a half, with about ten million men registered under the draft still available for calls to the colors.

Military experts estimated that should the war be prolonged and it became necessary for the United States to assume the burden of carry on the conflict an army of five million men would not be improbable. The immense and sudden expansion of the army has not been without criticism but it is declared this was expected in the conversion into a fighting force of a nation traditionally welded to the pursuits of peace.

The expansion of the naval forces has been characterized in Congress by many as praiseworthy. The exact details, here too, are shrouded in secrecy as a military measure, but it is well known that a emergency war building program has been pushed with such rapidity that the United States is well on the way to a place second only to Great Britain as a naval force, and that in destroyers alone—Most proved and deadly weapon of the submarine, the navy by next year will have the greatest fleet on the seven seas. Since the United States went to war, the navy has placed contracts for practically a thousand vessels, and beside that took charge of repairing the seized German and Austrian ships damaged by their crews at the orders of the German government.

The case of the great liner Vaterland, now the United States Ship Leviathan, is a fair example of the efficiency and speed with which the naval engineers conducted that work. When the Germans finished their work of destruction the Vaterland's commander remarked he would take his hat off to the Americans who could put the ship in shape in time to be of any service.

Within six months from when his words were spoken the Vaterland was in running order and, since, the navy has announced, has carried numbers of American troops and great quantities of supplies to the fighting lines in France.

By taking the ships and men of the Coast Guard into its fleets, by the merging of Naval Volunteers and Naval Militia, and with the growth of the Marine Corps, the navy has expanded its forces practically five times since the country went to war.

In its immense task of conveying troops there have been some losses, notably the Tuscania and the Antilles, but the losses of life have been fortunately small in comparison with the numbers of troops transferred. At the same time, the American destroyers, working with the British in the submarine zone, have made themselves a terror to the undersea boats. How many of these craft they have accounted for remains a military secret.

The Treasury, concerned with financing the war, has raised from Liberty Bonds and War Savings Stamp sales more than $4,000,000,000, and on this, the first anniversary of the declaration of war on Germany, is launching the Third Liberty Loan. Treasury estimates put the expenses of the first year of the war at about $12,000,000,000 exclusive of the advances to the Allies.

The advances to all the Allies have totaled, up to the close of March, $4,960,600,000. The United States has been secured with the bonds or obligations of the countries to which the money was advanced. More than $125,000,000 of the sum went to Russia before the debacle put the country out of the war. What return the United States will get, if any, is considered doubtful.

Chairman Hurley of the Shipping Board, in a recent speech in New York at which he outlined the shipbuilding program which is to make the bridge of ships to France is 28 per cent toward completion. He pointed out the magnitude of the task by recalling that the Shipping Board is building in a year, a greater organization than the Great Corporation has been able to build up in more than twenty years. The recent disclosure by the British Admiralty that German submarines actually destroyed twice as fast as is being built is the spur which is expected to put the full force of the country at this vital task.

Besides the work of the executive departments of the government, the year has seen tremendous strides in the mobilization of labor, industry, science and invention with the sole aim of winning the war. Hundreds of business and professional men have given up private interests to serve the government at nominal pay. Business and manufacture has given the best of its secrets. Whatever criticism has been made of the lack of co-ordination of all these tremendous resources and power, none ever has charged that private interest has withheld them.

What is expected to be one of the mightiest weapons toward winning the war is the War Trade Board, created for the purpose of cutting off supplies to Germany through the adjacent neutrals. As the war goes on, officials say, the work of this organization cannot be over estimated.

A year of war, all officials concede, finds shortcomings and defects, but it is contended no more than might have been expected from a peaceful nation suddenly reorganized to a war basis.

President Wilson in a recent declaration pronounced the present year the vital one in the winning of the war. As the resources of America now being gathered, get to the battlefronts with a mighty rush, they are fully expected to carry the Allies thru to victory.

TO STUDY MEN IN AVIATION SERVICE
Mental Specialists Will Place Soldiers of This Division in Special Classes—Dr. Norbury Asked to Serve.
One department of preparatory work in connection with the army is just in process of organization of which the public has little information. Lieut. Col. Bailey of the surgeon general's office is the head of the war work committee and has supervision of the department of mental hygiene especially as related to men in aviation work. Dr. Charles L. Dana of New York is the medical head of this department which is being organized and thirty specialists thruout the U. S. are to be secured for service of examining and classifying men in the aviation department.
Dr. F. P. Norbury has been asked to be one of this group of thirty, but it will not be possible for him to accept as it would require his taking a commission and devoting his entire time to the work. The men in the aviation department are to be placed in three classes, scouts, fighters and bombers. Men who enlist in aviation work will be examined by these special physicians in accordance with certain lines of inquiry. The men will be studied as to psychological and mental attitude and on the basis of these investigations will be classified. Some of the men temperamentally and mentally are better suited for the branch of the service than others and they will be selected in accordance with these qualifications.
As already indicated, this is a branch of the medical service about which the general public has heard little but the work will be of a serious and important kind and will be thoroughly organized in the course of a very few weeks' time.

THE GREAT LAKES TRAINING STATION

What the Jolly Tars are Doing To Amuse Themselves and Raise Money for Widows and Orphans of Their Number Lost in Battle.

Mrs. Mary Turner Carver is now a visitor at Lakeside Place, near Chicago and favors the Journal with the following interesting communication regarding the Jolly Tars and some of the environments and doings:

Within three miles of the Great Lakes station is the Recreation Home at Waukegan, provided by the women of the Mother's Congress and Parent-Teacher association of Illinois, for the use of our sailor boys. Every Saturday and Sunday they have leave of absence and many of them crowd the trains, cars or walk to and fro to enjoy the home so generously provided for them.

On Sunday, March 17, we visited the "Jolly Tars" house, a red brick, surrounded by porches, three stories high, very large and well built. To put in a heating plant would cost $20,000. That was impossible. Base burners were put in the first floor rooms, the stove pipes running up through the ceiling into attractive "drums" placed two feet above the floors in the second and third stories. The whole place has been comfortably heated—even during the extreme cold of the past winter. Two pool tables have been given to them, a Victrola and a "Grand piano." This piano, before the war, belonged to a young man's club in Evanston—every member of this club enlisted, so they sent the piano to the "Jolly Tars." Games of all kinds, too numerous to mention, have also been given. One they call "Kill the Kaiser." A weird most fascinating game. Wooden figures of little men are placed upon a board, inclosed by a low rim around it. Rooms are partitioned off in one end; at the other end a top is spun. It darts here and there as it strikes the rim, knocking down the men, darting through the openings which are just the size and shape of the top, and often leads all the men in these rooms before it darts out again. A most uncanny proceeding—so full of real life and vindictive joy. It seems to be. Many Jackies come every week. Some of them are never homesick; some are homesick sometimes and some poor Jackies are homesick all the time. One Jackie, an Italian, whose home is on the frontier in Italy, is eager to go to the front. A jolly set, they were talking and laughing, you would think it was some grand festival they were anticipating instead of hard fought battle fields. The president of the Illinois association, Mrs. Langworthy, showed us around. It was pleasant to see how the Jackies' faces brightened when she appeared, and how their eyes gratefully followed her as she moved about. She spends every Sunday from noon until late at night with them. One Jackie was singing and playing the piano. She stopped and asked him if he would command his own time. "Oh, no," he replied. "I am anxious to have you, so I continued, and a lot of Jackies go with us to our annual meeting in Aurora, Ill., May 15, and give us a good jolly time with your music. Our association is so interested in helping to make your stay pleasant here, I want them to see how well they are succeeding. Whom can I interview to get leave of absence. "Capt. Moffett," he said. The Jackies sometimes want ham and eggs, or something more substantial than pancakes, so the association is planning to put in a cafeteria. A chairman is appointed each month, who selects her own helpers. They are responsible for the home during that time and the refreshments, which are often freely contributed. The work is endorsed by the federal board of recreation and its president is Cyrus McCormick.

The idea of a Recreation Home at every naval station and cantonment originated at one of the annual meetings held in Washington, D. C., of the Mother's Congress and Parent-Teacher association. Upon her return home to Chicago, Mrs. Langworthy began to look for a suitable place and soon found this Sullivan home. With the generous enthusiastic help of the Chicago members the place was soon ready to open. May it long continue to be the "Jolly Tars" for the Great Lakes station, even after this cruel war is over.

Two thousand six hundred are now in training there and 4300 have been sent to sea since April 6, 1917, when war was declared. There are 456 barracks, 26 power buildings with 712 horse power of boilers; 1518 shower baths; 13 miles of water mains; 8 miles of sewers; 9 miles of paved roads; 67 cars on an average unloaded at the supply shed every day, and 5700 men employed.

The following is the announcement of their coming entertainment:

"Three hundred bluejackets from Great Lakes are about to anchor the biggest thing afloat on theatrical seas May 9 at the Auditorium theater in Chicago. It will be under auspices of the Navy Relief society for the benefit of dependent women and children of sailors killed or injured in the service. 'Leave It to the Sailor Boy' is the title.

"But they will leave it to you as well to swell the audience and the $2,000,000 emergency fund, by being present at the afternoon or evening performance.

"'Leave It to the Sailor Boy' is a clever, breezy musical comedy written by Chaplain Charles W. Moore, N. N. V., and the music and lyrics by James O'Keefe, of the Great Lakes band. The Great Lakes Symphony orchestra and Herbert Gould directing the chorus, will keep the ship steady on its way.

"There will be over 200 sailors in the cast and some girls who are boys, who would make Julian Eltinge put a reef in his sail. aboard the Moffett, a torpedo boat destroyer which has a thrilling time for two acts, zipping through the submarine zone to England. If you are on deck in time to see the curtain go up you will be on the Moffett with its funnel, mast, pilot house and flying bridge seen etched against the moonlight, a girl and a bluejacket thrown in, to take this hair raising cruise."

SPECIAL TODAY ONLY
We offer today 250 lbs. of hand dipped fine vanilla flavored chocolate creams at the attractive price of 33c the lb. This is a good value. At MERRIGAN'S.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
Bids will be received by the city council until noon Tuesday, April 9, for the construction of certain sidewalks on the following named streets, because of failure on the part of property owners to comply with notice sent them, the city will have the work done and taxed against the property in accordance with the law. The streets are as follows: North Main, South East, Pine, North Diamond, West College, South Sandy, Lurton, West Court, Myrtle, Mathers; and also Allen, South Clay, East Independence and Ashland avenues. The council reserves the right to reject any and all bids.
R. L. Pratt, City Clerk.

THE MOTHERS' MEETING.
The regular session of the mothers' meeting was held at Grace church yesterday with a good attendance. Mrs. Charles Hopper presided. A regular business session followed, and then the ladies were entertained with musical numbers admirably rendered by Miss Lorine Dewees.

Following this came a social time with nice refreshments. Henry Alhorn of Merodonia was a caller in the city yesterday.

WHAT A GREAT BATTLE MEANS

When 100,000 soldiers are in action, the wounded will number approximately 20,000 and major or minor operations will be necessary upon about 10,000 of them, while 5,000 men will require medical attention.

This gives an idea of the work suddenly thrown upon an army medical service in a battle such as has been raging in France, only instead of 100,000 men in action, there are around 1,000,000 engaged. The Red Cross, therefore, is not exaggerating when it tells American women that surgical dressings cannot be oversupplied. The United States army medical service now has turned over to the Red Cross the task of supplying our army with surgical dressings. The army will furnish the materials and the women will do the work, according to specifications made by the army. It is a fine compliment to Red Cross workers.

One surgeon in the course of seven or eight hours will use between 300 and 400 packets of surgical dressings or from 4,800 to 6,500 individual dressings. Multiply this by the hundreds and thousands of surgeons working at top speed in a great battle and still further emphasis is given to the statement that an oversupply is improbable.

Nearly all the wounded recover. The percentage of wounded who recover in this war is higher than in any other war because aid is given promptly right behind the trenches, at a first aid station in a dugout, then at the evacuation hospital and finally at a base hospital.

BOYS ARE READY FOR PATRIOTIC SERVICE

Farmers are Asked to Give Them a Chance to Help Raise Biggest Crop in State's History.

Ten thousand boys paraded the streets of Chicago Tuesday as a pledge of their readiness to do their part to help win the war. Not all, but many thousands of them are enrolled in the U. S. Boys' Working Reserve. Thousands of them have taken short courses in agriculture, prepared under the direction of Dean Davenport of the State College of Agriculture, to fit themselves for work on the farms this spring and summer.

There are other thousands throughout the state who have taken the course and are enrolled in the reserve. They are now ready to go out and do their best to help America raise a crop that will enable the allies to overwhelm Germany.

The boys of the reserve do not offer themselves as finished farm hands, but as willing boys. They have learned some fundamental things; they are ready to learn more. And they want to work.

Now the farmers of the state are asked to do their part, which is to send for the boys; take them upon the farms; teach them farming; be patient with them, and encourage them.

The farm labor shortage will not be as great this season as it was feared it would be. Boys will not be the necessities upon the farms that it seemed they would be. Nevertheless they can all be of service. The country is called upon to produce more food than ever before. More help will be required than ever before. Most of the boys have volunteered for farm work from patriotic motives rather than necessity. Therefore patriotism should induce the farmers of the state to give them a chance. Farmers should also remember that each green boy of this year may very well be a capable farm hand next year, and that next year every farm worker available will be needed.

Every farmer who will help himself by helping a boy do his patriotic service should write to Burridge D. Butler, State Director, U. S. Boys' Working Reserve, 120 W. Adams Street, Chicago.

Mrs. W. M. Redshaw and sons of the vicinity of Winchester were shoppers with city merchants yesterday.

Mrs. J. C. Lukeman of Springfield came down to the city to attend the ball at the college gym last evening.

Hardly a Drugstore in the Land That Does Not Sell This Remedy

On the Market Half a Century

When you are in perfect health, and are enjoying a strong and vigorous vitality, it is then that your blood is free from all impurities.

You should be very careful and give heed to the slightest indication of impure blood. A sluggish circulation is often indicated by an impaired appetite, a feeling of lassitude and a general weakening of the system. It is then that you should promptly take a few bottles of S. S. S., the great blood purifier and strengthener. It will cleanse the blood thoroughly and build up and strengthen the whole system. S. S. S. is sold by all druggists. Valuable information about the blood supply can be had free by writing to the Swift Specific Co., 24 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

The Mark of Merit

"There's a proud modesty in merit, averse from asking, and resolved to pay ten times the gifts it asks." It is this air of proud modesty that impresses and grips you instantly when you meet the Lexington—whether it be in the metropolitan atmosphere of the boulevard or the sylvan setting of the country drive. Surely the best evidence of real merit is the cordial recognition of it at all times—and it is just such recognition that is universally accorded to the car that bears the name of Lexington: a mark of honest merit.

Back of this mark of merit are many features that appeal to the man who knows motor car values. There is the new type propeller shaft, with non-metallic universal joints that require no lubrication. These joints are composed of three fabric discs that furnish a cushioned connection between the engine and the rear axle, and in which there is absolutely no lost motion.

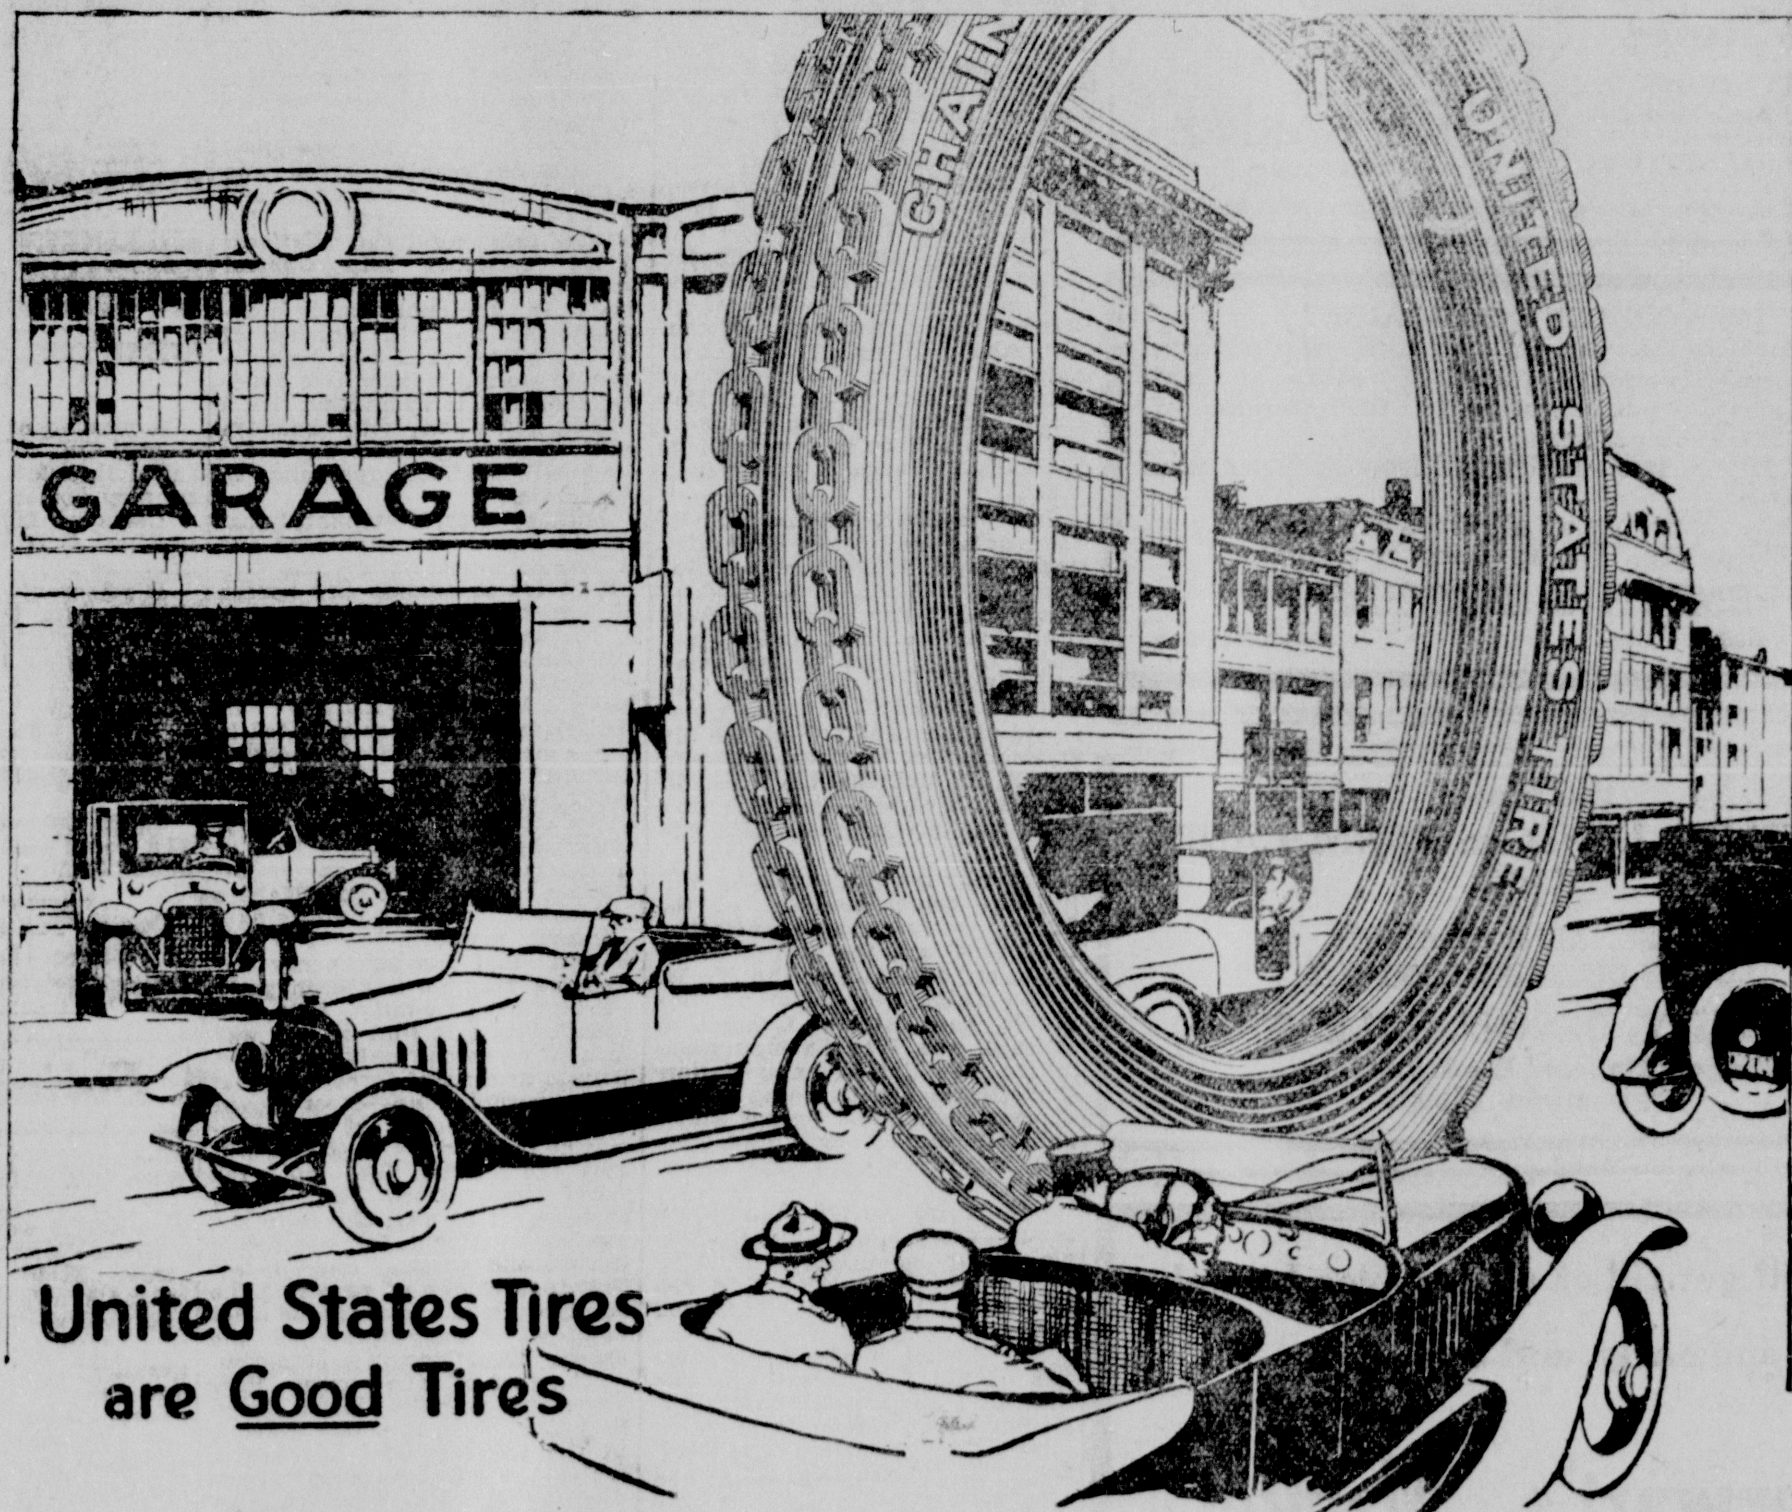

Result: Positive and quiet transmission of power. There is the new-type transmission and clutch, so silent and smooth in operation that the car glides away like an electric. The speedometer and tire pump gears are contained in the transmission case where they are free from dirt, and noiseless.

Then there is the new-type emergency hand brake that can be operated with one finger, and brings the car to a quick but gentle stop. It acts on a large drum mounted on the front universal joint just back of the transmission, where it is fully protected from the elements but readily adjusted. When you have opportunity to investigate the numerous advances incorporated in this advanced car, then only will you appreciate the true significance of that name of merit—Lexington.

BENEFIT BALL GIVEN BY TRINITY CHURCH

Was Attended By Over One Hundred and Fifty Couples—Success of Affair Due to Management of Mrs. J. Thompson Sharp and Associates.

One of the most successful events of the season was the benefit ball held in the Illinois College Gymnasium last night under the auspices of the Trinity church. More than 300 were in attendance. Under the efficient guidance of Mrs. J. Thompson Sharp the event was carried thru with splendid success.

On entering the gymnasium it seemed as tho every one seemed to catch the spirit of the evening, entering into the affair with great enthusiasm. Never before has the gymnasium appeared better than last night when, draped and decorated with the American flag and the red and white bunting, the lights, it kept in mind the general feeling of the day and instilled into the people present renewed devotion to the country's cause. The success of the decorations are due to the splendid work of Dr. Ames, Miss Ruth Chipchase, and Miss Marion Candler. In one corner of the gymnasium portioned off with decorations, Randall's orchestra furnished music for the evening.

Promptly at nine o'clock the grand march started, led by Sergeant Major Jenkins and Miss Vincent Cromwell. Mr. Jenkins dressed in his regulation uniform and Miss Cromwell in the garb of a Red Cross nurse. Following these came Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Farrell, Rector and Mrs. J. F. Langton, and Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Ames. During the course of the march all the ladies grouped on the east side of the floor while the men came down the center of the floor in two's and all joined in singing America.

Immediately following the song the orchestra played "Over There" and the dancing started. During the evening those that did not care to dance spent the time playing cards, or visiting with their friends in sections of the gymnasium reserved for such.

In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Russell, Dr. and Mrs. Ames, Rector and Mrs. Langton, and Mr. and Mrs. Andre.

While the dancing was being enjoyed by some, others were served to refreshments under the supervision of the Peacock Inn. One thing of very great interest to all, was the drawing of the new church which the Trinity people expect to erect as soon as it seems advisable. The drawings were made by a Chicago architect, and showed very plainly the kind of structure the church will be when erected.

STRICT BREAD RULES FOR RESTAURANTS

Amount of Wheat Products It is Permissible to Serve Again Cut Down.

The seriousness of the wheat shortage is again very clearly emphasized in the regulations just issued by the food administration for the control of the serving of bread in public eating places. A copy of the rules was received yesterday by the local food administrator, M. F. Dunlap, from Harry A. Wheeler, federal food administrator for Illinois.

This announcement reads as follows:

Regulations for public eating places:

1. No wheat products, including Victory bread, rolls and crackers, to be served unless specially ordered. Victory bread, rolls and crackers, must not be kept on tables and not over two ounces served to any one patron at one meal.

2. Not more than six pounds of wheat flour, whether patent, Graham or whole wheat, shall be purchased or used for every ninety meals served. Standard Victory bread and standard rolls are ruled to contain approximately one-half pound of wheat flour for each pound gross weight. Record of flour purchased (including the weight of wheat flour in bread and rolls purchased) and record of number of meals served must be accurately kept and reported to the United States Food administration on request. Investigations will be made to enforce this rule.

3. Mondays and Wednesdays, and all evening meals (5:00 p. m. to midnight) must be wheatless. Victory bread or rolls, but not wheat crackers, may be served, but only when specially ordered, and in portions of not more than two ounces per person.

4. Meatless days, porkless days and meatless meals are suspended until May 1st.

Note: Six pounds of flour for every ninety meals served will not permit the serving of two ounces per patron at each meal. You must, therefore, cut down on the use of bread by strictly observing regulation No. 1. There is a very serious wheat shortage and you must do your part. If you are willing to volunteer not to serve any wheat products, in bread or other food, until the next harvest is available, send us your name and you will be put on an honor list. Many have already volunteered in response to Mr. Hoover's request. Get your competitors to join you in this patriotic pledge.

DECORATE YOUR WINDOWS FOR THE LIBERTY LOAN.

The Liberty Loan organization in St. Louis has forwarded a supply of posters, these attractive posters will be distributed today simultaneously through the district. Boy Scouts will be in charge of the delivery here in Jacksonville and merchants are asked to see that the posters are given conspicuous places in the windows or near the store front. The proper use of these posters will aid greatly in the publicity work and will be appreciated by the Liberty Loan organization. T. M. Tomlinson, Director of Distribution for Morgan County.

LIBERTY BONDS FOR THIS COUNTY ALLOTTED

BANKERS AT CONFERENCE FRIDAY MADE ALL NECESSARY ARRANGEMENTS.

Total Assigned County Runs to $773,250—Each Bank Patriotically Ready and Willing to Take Quota Assigned Them Federal Reserve Bank—Figures for Nearby Counties Given.

A meeting of representatives of the various banks in Jacksonville and Morgan county was held at the Avers National bank Friday afternoon. At this meeting the quota of the Third Liberty Loan bonds allotted to the banks of this county was considered and each bank made the necessary arrangements for taking care of the amount assigned. The quota for the whole eighth federal reserve district, of which Morgan county is a part, is $130,000,000. The quota assigned each bank was worked out on the basis of a certain percentage of resources. The banks in the various Illinois counties which are included in the district are taking bonds to the extent of $18,168,000. Morgan county's quota for the Third Loan is $773,250. In the second Liberty loan the subscriptions amounted to $713,300, so that the quota for the third loan is higher than the subscriptions of the previous loan by about $60,000.

Easily Meet Requirements.

Business, and therefore banking, conditions are such in this county that the banks can meet the liberty loan requirements with comparative ease. An extended publicity campaign has not been carried on in this city or county but nevertheless the people generally are familiar with the salient facts about the Third Liberty Loan and a considerable number of people have already filed requests with banks for bonds.

The quota of bonds for each bank in Morgan county is indicated below. As a matter of interest the figures are also given for the banks of Scott and Greene counties:

NEWS FROM CLAY R. APPLE

Clay R. Apple, who is in the U. S. Marines, recently wrote to a friend here, his letter being dated, "U. S. Marines, Cape Haitien, Haiti, care of P. M., New York." His letter is in reply to one sent him some months ago, which he only received a few days before answering it.

Mr. Apple says: "As you possibly know, I have been in the Tropics since October, and have found life here, on the whole, agreeable and healthful. "While you have been in the midst of blizzards we have had sunshine and flowers. For most of us, however, while this life is good, we think life in France would be better. Sometimes we hear we will go soon, and again just the contrary."

Berryman, Sig. and Pierce, Sig. are in Santo Domingo. Lukeman, Sig; Wilson, Sig; Frisbie, Sig. and Riefler, Sig. are in the U. S. Marines. While the ranks were depleted by enlistment from the Society, I don't believe we could have produced a better proof of our manhood. What say you? All practically volunteers, too."

"The news about Harmon, Stewart, Russell, Bray, Lashmet, Foster and other Sigs always sounds good to me. "Bullard is doing fine in Washington, it seems."

To the uninitiated it may be said that Mr. Apple was president of Sigma Pi last year, which, in part, accounts for his references to fellow members of the society.

HOSPITAL BALL BROUGHT GOOD RETURN

Seventy Five Dollars Added to War Recreation Fund—Various Committees Contributed to Success.

The patriotic ball given at Jacksonville State hospital Thursday night thru the special endeavor of Mrs. E. L. Hill was a notable success. The purpose of the ball was to raise contributions for the soldiers war recreation fund. In addition to a very delightful social event Mrs. Hill and her associates in the work were able to announce a subscription of $75 for the general fund. After the preparations were pushed rapidly. Amusement hall, where the ball was given, had been very attractively decorated with flags, streamers and flowers.

Excellent music was furnished by an orchestra from the School for the Blind and Mr. Menz of the State hospital, who made no charge for their service. There was a long program of dances and those who did not dance spent the hours in a very pleasant social way and the patronage of the various booths were liberal. One of the money making features of the occasion was the sale of two cakes by the punch board plan, and the successful winners were Mr. Cosgriff and Mr. Obermeyer. The decorations were in charge of Mrs. Burford, Miss Hally, Miss Ray, Dr. Abbott, Miss Gilligan and Miss Whelan. Refreshments were sold at different stands. Dr. Abbott who was dressed in a Red Cross uniform, presided at the punch board. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Marsellus sold sandwiches and Mrs. E. L. Hill and Mrs. Atterton sold ice cream and candy.

As the guests arrived they were met by "Uncle Sam" at the door, impersonated by Herman Wirtz, one of the residents of the hospital, and he carried out the part splendidly. The other doorkeeper was Harry Keller. Altogether the ball was a very successful event. The fact that a large number of ladies connected with the hospital canvassed for the sale of tickets no doubt had much to do with the very large attendance. This group included Miss McRoy, Miss Corner, Miss Dewey, Miss Main, Miss Strupp, Miss Apple and Mrs. Mills and Mr. Knight.

ROOF FIRE FRIDAY

The fire department was called to the residence of E. W. Ward, 118 South East Street at 6:45 o'clock Friday evening where sparks from a chimney had set fire to the roof. The property is owned by Mrs. Martha Landers. The blaze was extinguished by neighbors without much damage, before the arrival of the department.

RETURNS HOME

Mrs. John J. McCabe of Delaware, Ohio, who has been visiting here, returned home Thursday. Mrs. McCabe came here at the time of the illness of her sister, Miss Emma Capps, and, after the funeral she went to Nebraska to see her daughter, Mrs. George K. Moore. Since over a week ago, the lady has been visiting here and attending to business matters, as well as closing up the old Capps home. It is many years since the older part of that house was built. The newer part was put up about 1870.

NOTES OF THE CONGREGATION ASSOCIATION

Miss Marian Fairbank of the city was honored with the position of registrar of the Springfield association of Congregational churches which met at Decatur this week. The meetings were well attended and were full of interest. Rev. W. S. Dando of Illinois was presiding officer. He had just returned from a service of five months in Y. M. C. A. work at Camp Logan and wore his uniform which was quite impressive.

The last evening there was a grand meeting in the city in behalf of the Liberty loan. Sergeant Edwards, a Canadian officer who had been a prisoner, was the chief speaker and gave a part of his time also to the association which had the overflow from the building which was unable to accommodate all who wanted to attend the meeting. The evening was grandly enjoyed by every one present.

The next meeting of the association is to be in Jacksonville in October when Mr. Collins will be the local pastor.
